[Insert 2 6-mm eyes through face, but don't fasten yet (they go through the face and the head). Use a small amount of black yarn and embroider a small smile between the eyes—use photos as guides. Fasten off, leave long tail for sewing to head. Set aside.]

After you do a few rounds of bright blue, attach your face to the head by inserting the posts of the 6-mm eyes through both the beige and white layers, and fasten securely. You can either sew the face to the head at this point or wait until the body is finished and stuffed (my preference).]
