It's that busy time of year again when our thoughts turn to family holiday gatherings, festive parties and, of course, gift-giving. Finding gift solutions that won't break our budgets is always a primary concern for most of us.

Our Gifts on a Budget section offers several great ideas that can help take care of gifts for men, women, boys and girls of all ages on your holiday list. You'll find fabulous family scarves, colorful family hats, festive fingerless mitts, a cozy headband, cute, little toys and a lovely bookmark. No gift costs more than $25 to make and most cost far less.

Although our Holiday Glitz section focuses on sparkly designs for both home and wardrobe, these projects also make wonderful gifts that can each be made on a budget of less than $25. They include a beautiful poinsettia table runner, a lacy snowflake photo ornament, glittering candle wraps, a stunning platinum-look floral necklace and a sparkling lace neck wrap.

You'll find other great ideas throughout these pages as well to help solve your gift-giving dilemmas. You'll be proud of the beautiful items you create from the patterns in this issue, and your gift recipients will surely appreciate the love and care you put into each and every stitch!

Wishing you and yours a happy holiday season,

Carol Alexander

Meet the Winner

Victoria C. Walker

My name is Victoria C. Walker, and I was about 7 or 8 years old when my mother handed me a ball of yarn and a crochet hook and taught me the basic crochet stitches. No matter what other craft I learned, crochet has remained my favorite.

Although most people assume crocheting requires lots of patience, I actually have no patience; this is my therapy! Eventually, I began designing my own projects, but when I discovered a pattern book for Victorian crochet lace while researching a project in the local library, it was love at first sight! I have been experimenting and designing with Victorian-style lace crochet in various forms since then. My journey has taken me to Pigeon Forge, Tenn., from where I market Victorian-style crocheted lace items through my business, VictoriasLace, Etc... I also love to sew, weave and cross stitch, and I am currently exploring kumihimo (the Japanese braiding technique).

Crocheting in the Emerald Isle

When you see Irish crochet do you think of the beautiful lush green hills of Ireland? Have you ever wanted to visit Ireland and explore the unique splendor of the land and culture?

We hope you will join us for Annie's first crochet tour to the Emerald Isle, June 24–July 3, 2016. Enjoy the wonderful sights and sounds of Ireland, including the Cliffs of Moher, Killarney, Blarney Castle, and Kylemore Abbey and Gardens. There will be time for sightseeing on your own, as well as a visit to a farm to see sheepshearing, learn about wool production, and make delicious Irish scones. We'll even learn traditional Irish crochet from a local teacher!

To make the experience extra special, Annie's guest instructor—award-winning crochet designer Jennifer E. Ryan, whose unique Celtic crochet designs have appeared numerous times in Crochet World and are inspired by Ireland—will share many of her beautiful designs and teach classes throughout the trip.

Jennifer says, "Our family is filled with Irish heritage, and our hearts are filled with a love of everything Irish—the music, dance, artwork, food, countryside, accent and fun-loving people. I am very excited to have this opportunity to visit Ireland and enjoy this incredible experience with others who also love to crochet. It will be wonderful to be in the land that inspires many of my crochet projects."

On the tour, Jennifer will be teaching three fun Celtic knot crochet workshops using simple stitches and basic knot weaving techniques to create unique projects that can be finished while on the trip and worn while touring! She will have many of her Celtic knot crochet designs on display to inspire and instruct.

Join us for 10 incredible days touring Ireland with your crochet hooks in hand. For more information and to sign up, visit www.crafttours.com and click on Ireland Tours.

World's Biggest Stocking

Caron is doing a fabulous giving initiative. Their goal is to create the World's Biggest Stocking. It will be made of 36-inch-square blankets donated by crafters.

Here's what you do:

Get your yarn—you can use any worsted-weight yarn but consider using Caron United yarn, as 15 cents of each skein sold will go to Children of Fallen Patriots Foundation, a charity that provides college scholarships and long-term educational counseling to children of fallen patriots. You can read more about this program at www.fallenpatriots.org.

Make a 36-inch-square blanket. It can be crocheted or knitted from your own pattern or one of the free crochet or knit patterns available at www.yarnspirations.com/worlds-biggest-stocking. Mail your blanket to: Caron United—World's Biggest Stocking Project, 1481 W. 2nd St., Washington, NC 27889-4157. Their team will sew the donated blankets together to create the stocking. Guinness World Records will determine if they reached their goal. Then, the stocking will be disassembled and the individual blankets donated to people in need.

Please join this very worthwhile endeavor on behalf of children of our fallen patriots. You'll be glad you did!
