Trollfashions

Dear Crocheter,

Big dolls, little dolls, all kinds of dolls. Designer Mary Layfield has always loved creating unique doll outfits and now turns her attention to today's hottest dolls—trolls!

Mary was raised as the oldest of nine children on a farm in West Virginia. Since there were no neighbor children to play with, Mary learned to use her imagination and began creating her own designs as a child.

Her first designs were doll clothes and since then, she has crocheted and sewn many, many clothes and doll accessories with her own distinctive touch! Mary looks at today's popularity of trolls and says, "Trolls are a reminder of my daughter's childhood. She had a troll as a child and now my grandchildren are also playing with them!"

The one-of-a-kind outfits in Troll Fashions will be a hit with kids of all ages—this unique collection will thrill troll collectors like no others!

Happy Crocheting!

Annie

Introducing the Founder of Annie's Attic®

Annie Potter

Annie Potter, known and admired by her peers as an avid needlecrafter, is recognized by her co-workers as the creator and founder of ANNIE'S ATTIC®. She is respected by her vendors as a very successful businesswoman, but to her friends and family, she's a designer, an editor and a crocheter who loves the art that has become her livelihood.

Her story is about talent and opportunity combined with determination and gratitude. Annie explains that it all began during her childhood back in Kansas.

"Mom spent hours crocheting, which fascinated me even at the young age of 5. And by the time I reached 8, I found myself crocheting. Not long after that, I began to design my own patterns. I was never satisfied with the dime-store patterns as they were. With a change here and an alteration there, they would become my own creations."

Creativity is Annie's gift to life. As an adult, she began to design professionally. Then, from a simple mail-order ad in a needlecraft magazine, ANNIE'S ATTIC® was born. From the kitchen table, she, her family and friends began to fill the thousands of orders that arrived day after day.

After the original advertisement came another, and another, and another. Then a catalog. Then a magazine called Annie's Quick & Easy Pattern Club, followed by another entitled Annie's Crochet Newsletter.

Today, ANNIE'S ATTIC® involves millions of people, all dedicated to the art of sharing needlecrafts. And although Annie buys designs from people from all over the world, she still creates and publishes many of her own patterns in the catalog and in the magazines.

ANNIE'S ATTIC® is more than a needlecraft company nestled in the small southern town of Big Sandy, Texas. It's a cluster of Victorian homes—a bed and breakfast, a tearoom and a gift shop—that is visited by thousands of people every year!
