

Designer Becky Skuse says: "Start your broomstick crochet adventure with my simple bowl. Its a simple square with a generous helping of PVA glue to mould it into a shape. You may choose to use the square as a decorative wallhanging or a place mat instead, or make more squares and join them together into a blanket. Let your creativity loose and just see what happens!"

TO MAKE UP

Find a bowl you like the shape of, place it upside down and cover it with nonstick paper.

Make sure you protect your work surface with newspaper or similar.

Brush your square with a generous amount of PVA glue on both sides. Try to push the glue into the stitches to coat as much of the yarn as possible.

Place the square on top of the covered bowl, with wrong side facing up. Stretch the Square over the bowl into the shape desired. Leave to dry for a few days.

Carefully remove your Fruit Bowl from the paper and bowl mould.

The ombre square is made from alternating rows of double crochet and broomstick crochet

New release

Lazy dayz

Rico Design's new novelty fashion Lazy Hazy Summer Cotton is a special yarn which has a solid core colour wrapped with an additional print coloured thread, which gives it that multi-shaded effect. This twisted thread looks absolutely stunning in crocheted clothes or accessories. Why not hook up a summer top or lightweight shawl for balmy nights? Or a soft blanket for a little one in your life? We just love the subtle shades of the milky white yarn, with it's delicate hints of yellow, pink and blue peeking through, rather like the sun rising on a misty summer's morning. The yarn is 49% cotton, 46% acrylic and 5% polyester, with 150m length and 50g weight per ball. The yarn is available in eight beautiful colours which vary from shades of pastel to bold. Go to www.rico-design.com for more information.

Mini profile

ANNEMARIE HUIJSER

It all began with my Instagram account that I set up three years ago. I started with sharing some pictures of my first crochet designs (I think it was a granny square blanket) and pictures of our colourful home. It turned out lots of people around the globe enjoyed my pictures, probably due to my 'signature style': every image is taken in our home and has the same recognisable fresh and bright colour scheme. I also learned how to write and adjust crochet patterns, but it was difficult to share them on Instagram. At that point I started thinking about writing a book with easy-to-make crochet designs and patterns. I was lucky enough to find a publisher that was immediately interested in creating a crochet book with me, and together we launched Haken met Studio Hip en Stip (Crochet with Studio Hip and Dot). I loved creating and writing the designs and patterns and I especially loved the styling and layout of the book. It is very 'me'!

My favourite colour is pink and I always add it in every design I make. I get my inspiration from the streets, Netflix or from magazines. I often start with making a doily (like the Colourful Doilies in my book) as starting point or base for my designs (for example a blanket). That's how I know if colours look good together.

I really love granny squares in all shapes and forms. Granny squares are really great to mix and match all kinds of colours together, and there are so many possibilities and versions. My favourite is the Confetti Granny Square that I used for the blanket on the cover of my book. That blanket is just one big, fun, bright and colourful party!

Each issue we explore a UK yarn shop!

Who's in charge? Karen Gibney and Kirsty Trewellard

Where can we find you? We are in Belfast near CS Lewis Square

What is your shop like? It is a yarn cafe spread over two floors, specialising in natural yarns. We are also a learning space with lots of classes (sadly not during lockdown).

What can you offer during lockdown? We do sales online and no-contact deliveries. We have strong social media pages and are hosting Facebook Live sessions to show products and keep in touch with our regulars who we are missing badly. We also have a WhatsApp group to help new learners keep on track – they have been doing really well.

SPECIAL ESPADRILLE

Meet your new summer love, (or maybe your solemate?) – the Paloma espadrille. Hook up a pair with Wool and the Gang's crochet kit. These chic peep-toe sandals are crocheted in ultra light Ra-Ra Raffia, and designed in collaboration with espadrille extraordinaires Soludos. There are 12 colours to choose from, and the kit includes Ra-Ra Raffia, a pair of soles, pattern, mini ball of thread and even a sewing needle. A crochet hook can also be added if you want to send it to a newbie crocheter. This easy kit should take roughly eight hours to complete, so they'll be ready in a jiffy. With this pack, you'll have enough Ra-Ra Raffia left to make a second pair of espadrilles – bonus! Go to www.woolandthegang.com for this style and more.

Good cause

LOVE CROCHET, LOVE NHS

Watching the pandemic unfold and the strain it put on the NHS made crocheter Megan want to help. Using her love of crochet, she organised the making of a collaborative blanket to raffle off. Fellow crocheters sent her their granny squares and she joined them together – in fact she had so many squares she made a second blanket! It raised over £1300 for the NHS and Megan said, "I'm pleased I could help even in a small way, and to bring crocheters together made it even better." Find her on Instagram at @meganhmakes

Garland is made up of 7 Ruffled Flags. The Flags are made first and joined together at the end. You can use any colour throughout although we do recommend using the same colour for the final row of Flag throughout (Row 3).

GARLAND

RUFFLED FLAG (MAKE 7)

Using any colour, ch68, ss to first ch to make a loop, being careful not to twist.

Round 1 (RS) Ss in next 7 ch, ch4, (skip 1 ch, tr in next ch, ch1) 8 times, skip 1 ch, tr in next ch, ch4, skip 1 ch, ss in next 14 ch, ch4, (skip 1 ch, tr in next ch, ch1) 8 times, skip 1 ch, tr in next ch, ch4, skip 1 ch, ss in next 7 ch, ss in first ss of round. [18 tr, 4 ch-4 sps, 16 ch-1 sps]

Fasten off.

Join new colour into first ch-4 sp.

Work the following row over half of the sts from Round 1.

Row 2 (RS) Ch6 (counts as ttr and ch2), (ttr, ch2, ttr) in same ch-4 sp, (ch2, ttr, ch2, ttr, ch2, ttr) in each of the next 9 ch-sps. [30 ttr, 29 ch-2 sps]

Fasten off.

Repeat Row 2 on the unworked ch-sps from Round 1, beginning with the next ch-4 sp after the 14 ss.

Fasten off.

Join any colour into ch-6 at beginning of Row 2.

Row 3 Ch1, dc in same sp, (ch3, dc in next ch-sp) 28 times. [29 dc, 28 ch-3 sps]

Repeat Row 3 on the opposite side of the Flag.

Fasten off and weave in all ends.

TO MAKE UP

Interlock each Flag together by folding one Flag in half, threading one half through the centre of a second Flag, then fold the second Flag in half, threading one half through the next Flag being joined. Continue until all Flags are joined. You can secure each end with a few small stitches.

SIMPLE STEPS HOW TO DOUBLE DECREASE IN TREBLE CROCHET (TR3TOG)

1 Start a treble as usual: yrh, insert hook in next stitch, yrh, pull up loop, yrh, pull through first 2 loops (2 loops on hk). Now start a 2nd tr and work it until you're halfway through, as before (3 loops hook).

2 Without completing the first or 2nd tr, start a 3rd treble and work it until you're halfway through, as before (4 loops on hook). (If you're instructed to tr4tog, just repeat the process again.)

3 Now complete all the treble stitches together by working yrh and pull this loop through all the loops on the hook.

4 This is how your completed tr3tog should look. You will have neatly decreased 2 tr stitches. On subsequent rows, just work into the top of the tr3tog stitch as usual.

Kermit the hermit loves a day at the beach, but won't go without his home comforts – or even his home. We can all relate! This is a great time to master the invisible decrease – a simple adaptation that makes decreases barely detectable on tightly curved shapes.

NOTES

The Crab is made up of separate pieces, which are joined together at the end.

This pattern is worked using the amigurumi method. Work in a continuous spiral without closing off each round with a slip stitch. You may find it helpful to place a marker in the first st of each round, moving it up as you work. Work standard decreases on Shell, and invisible decreases (inv dec – see Abbreviations) on all other pieces.

Round 6 3dc in first st, 6dc. [9 dc]

Rounds 7-10 Dc around.

Fasten off leaving a long tail for sewing Legs to Body.

TO MAKE UP

Stuff Shell. Place Shell over Body at an angle so it covers more of one side, then sew in place.

For a tidy seam, sew Shell around the posts, rather than loops, of stitches from final round. Add stuffing to Eyes and sew to front of Body, on opposite side from where Shell is angled. Top up stuffing in Claws and sew them to sides of Body, close to, but behind the Eyes. Add a little stuffing to Legs and sew to Body, 3 per side, behind the Claws. Using Yarn D, embroider 2 cheeks between Eyes and Claws. Using brown stranded cotton, embroider a smile below the Eyes. Weave in all ends.

SIMPLE STEPS HOW TO WORK DOUBLE CROCHET IN A SPIRAL

1 Make a magic loop (see page 87) and work the t-ch (ch1 for dc). Now work 6 dc stitches into the loop, but do not join the last stitch and first stitch of this round with a slip stitch.

2 Instead, work the first dc stitch of the second round into the first stitch of the first round. To do this, insert the hook into the stitch, yrh, pull yarn through, yrh and pull the yarn through both loops.

3 You'll now be working in a spiral. Continue to work more rounds of dc stitches in a spiral, according to your pattern instructions.

4 On the last round, after you've worked the last dc stitch, you'll need to finish off the spiral with a slip stitch for a neat edge: insert the hook into the next stitch, yrh and pull through both loops.

STEFFI'S JOURNAL

...from the studio

Say it with micro crochet – tiny makes with enormous meaning, from Steffi Graves

Steffi makes items that are delicate and simply beautiful

Do you ever get so inspired by another crocheter that you absolutely have to try out a new technique? I was lucky to be introduced to Steffi Graves who specialises in designing and making the most exquisite micro crochet jewellery and now I can't wait to have a go! I crocheted some earrings once and they were clumsy and awkward but Steffi has the most amazing way of making items that are delicate, professional and simply beautiful. Travelling meant Steffi needed a much more portable craft than her background in metalwork and enamelling and so she found micro crochet. Alongside her work as a design and technology teacher Steffi has a flourishing business that includes designing for magazines and creating bespoke pieces for customers. She shared with me how much they can mean to those who wear them and also gave me her secrets to achieving these magical little jewels so we can make some too!

Steffi credits her North Yorkshire surroundings as the inspiration for much of her work. Exploring flowers in nature is the perfect way to spark the design process but sometimes it comes from specific requests too. She recently created earrings based on a family heirloom crochet blanket with a beach scene colour palette so there really are no limits to what can offer inspiration. Steffi tells me her favourite projects are those with symbolic meaning and I see exactly why. Forget-me-nots to remember, granny squares that are sacred to us crocheters, cherry blossoms for spring, rainbows for Pride and more recently to uplift us all, holly leaves for festive times – the list is endless. We all have symbols that mean so much and micro crochet lets you share that with such elegance.

DESIGNING AND MAKING BESPOKE JEWELLERY

Most of the design process for Steffi is just getting right down to the making. She rarely sketches or plans but experiments with different stitches and colour schemes until she gets it just right. It normally involves some tweaking and then gets added to her record of stitch diagrams so she can recreate the pattern. From there, beads are added if needed and then finally the jewellery findings are attached. People often wonder if the work is stiffened in any way but it's not. Steffi tells me her tight tension and lightly waxed cotton gives just the right stitch definition and the perfect structure to form the intricate fabric with its own unique characteristics that makes it so special.

THE CHALLENGES OF MICRO CROCHET – SOUND FAMILIAR?

Funnily enough micro crochet has most of the same challenges as regular crochet! Keeping your tension just right, weaving in "Tight tension and lightly waxed cotton gives just the right stitch definition"

Anyone can master the technique with a few key materials those fiddly ends, making sure you work into the right part of the stitch – all the woes of crochet we overcome with every project we make. One of the trickiest things is making identical pieces so that a pair of earrings match. Crocheting multiples of the same piece and then picking out matching pairs from them solves this, but means she has a box of singletons waiting for their partner to be created! People worry that hand dexterity, grip or eye sight might be a challenge but Steffi assures me that this shouldn't be the case, anyone can try their hand (and hook) at it!

CAN I REALLY TRY IT?

Absolutely. Steffi promises me that anyone can master the technique. All you need is time and practise, just like any other craft. A great idea of hers is to start your usual yarn and hook to make a piece and then work your way down yarn gauges and hook sizes. You end up with tangible items that show your progress and size difference isn't so much of a shock this way too! Steffi suggests a few key materials when you start: shop around for the best hook for you in terms of shape and ergonomics; invest in a magnifying glass (she doesn't use one yet but fancies one that goes round your neck and sits on your chest); make sure you have fine but strong needles so they don't disturb your stitches; and experiment with different fine threads to see what your tension and stitch definition looks like. I'd bet that most of us have a set of teeny hooks that we bought for some project years ago and embroidery thread lurking at the bottom of a sewing box so why not get your micro crochet on? Make something tiny, beautiful and full of meaning.

STEFFI'S TOP TIPS FOR MICRO CROCHET

1. Good lighting first and foremost, work in daylight if you can!
2. Use a comfy handled hook as working so small is uncomfortable if not.
3. Use lighter coloured thread to see where to place your stitches more easily.
4. Try flat motifs that work between stitches rather than in stitches themselves.
5. Crochet excess thread as you go to save fiddly sewing in at the end.

The front is normally where all the focus is, but the back is where it's at for this embellished vest. The lacy mandala will be the focus of attention as you stride past your neighbours (at a safe distance of course). Just be sure to wear sun protection underneath!

NOTES

Mandala is worked in rounds with RS facing throughout.

Where a stitch is worked at the end of a round to join to the first st, this counts as a ch-sp in the stitch count. For example, if working a ch2, tr into st at start of round; this would count as 1 ch-5 sp.

TO MAKE UP

Block Mandala to measurements stated.

Lay the Mandala on the back of the vest and pin in the desired place. Turn the vest inside out and mark a circle approx 0.5cm smaller than the size of the Mandala. Unpin the Mandala and neatly cut out the marked circle. Repin the Mandala to the right side and, using a needle and white thread, backstitch the Mandala neatly to the vest working through all the stitches of the final round.

Turn the vest inside out again and roll back the 0.5cm excess and backstitch around, tucking in the raw edge so that none is visible from the right side.

Slip on an easy-to-wear swancho and you'll be away – the wide neck and sleeves coupled with a boxy body mean there's plenty of room for movement.

NOTES

Yoke is worked in rounds from the top down. Body and Sleeves are worked vertically in rows, then sewn into Yoke between markers. The colourwork for the Yoke is worked using the tapestry crochet method. The colour changes are shown on the Chart on page 89. On the Chart, each square represents 1dc stitch, except for sts marked with 'v' symbol where 2dc are worked in one st. Read all rows from right to left. When changing colour mid-row, twist the ends of the two colours together. Pick up the new colour in the last yrh of the previous stitch. Carry the unused strands of yarn loosely across the top of the sts and enclose it by working sts over it. Ch2 at beg of round/row does not count as st throughout.

SIMPLE STEPS HOW TO WORK TAPESTRY COLOURWORK

1 Work to the point where you want to change colour and on the last stitch in the first colour, work the final yrh using the second colour.

2 Work a stitch using the second colour, but hold the working end of the first colour on top of the stitches below and make sure you work your new stitch over the top of it, effectively encasing the first colour.

3 Continue working in this way, encasing the working end of the first colour. When you want to change colour again, use the same method as before: on the last stitch in the second colour, work the final yrh using the first colour.

4 It's important at this point not to pull too tightly on the first colour of yarn or it will pucker the fabric. Continue to work stitches using the first colour, over the top of the working end of the second colour.

CAL TENSION/MEASUREMENTS

Tension is not critical for the Blanket; the finished measurements will be approx 138x138cm (54¼x 54¼in) if you make your motifs to the sizes stated. The fully reversible Jumper is one size only with an actual Bust measurement of approx 120cm (47¼in), although there are guidelines at the end on how to adjust for a larger size. If you want to make sure your Jumper comes out at this size, check that your motifs are the sizes stated, adjusting your hook size if necessary.

ABBREVIATIONS

For a full list, see page 88

CAL NOTES

There are nine different motifs that make up the CAL, and you can use these motifs to make either a Blanket or a Jumper. In each issue we will give you instructions to make a different motif, along with how many motifs you will need if you are making a Blanket, and how many for a Jumper. You will need twice the number of motifs to make the Blanket. There is one motif each issue for the first nine parts, and the final part will include instructions on how to make up your Blanket or Jumper.

A bonanza of colour and brimful of cheer, our two-in-one crochet-along puts the 'CAL' in 'superCALifragilisticexpialidocious'! Hook up the motifs month by month, and choose to make up a bright jumper or bold blanket.

Sue has a real passion for teaching and loves to see the pride students take in their achievements

Boo Marshall

COLOUR CONNECTION

Designer and owner of The Mercerie, Sue Maton shares her philosophy that crochet is a comfort, teaching tool and an important way to connect with others

As with many craft entrepreneurs, when social distancing measures started several weeks ago, it didn't take Sue Maton too long to find new ways of keeping her crochet ventures going. "Initially, the prospect of lockdown filled me with despair as I make my living teaching classes and helping people to be sociable and support their high street retailers," she recalls.

"However, most self-employed creatives are pretty resourceful and responsive to changing environments. I've migrated most of my courses online now and I'm using a combination of video tutorials and live Q&A sessions on Zoom. It's been a steep learning curve for me, and very time consuming, but it's also pointing me in a new direction."

Sue's classes are a major part of The Mercerie's mission. "When I started The Mercerie in 2012 I had a vague idea that I'd be an online yarn retailer, and thought it would be good to design some products to help sell the wool," she says. "The reality was that I didn't sell much yarn; I couldn't compete with other retailers and my heart wasn't in selling, it was in designing. So in 2016 I decided to concentrate on designing products that I could genuinely put my heart into. Also, at this time, I began to grow the crochet classes and found that I could successfully combine the two things I love; designing and teaching. This now forms the core of what The Mercerie is all about; good design and bringing people together."

NEW VOCATION

Teaching is very much in Sue's DNA; she trained as a knitwear designer in the 1980s at De Montfort University then began teaching at her local college. "Teaching became my vocation for the next 20 years! I enjoyed learning with the students as the subjects I taught included Art and Design, Art History, Textile Design, Fashion and even Graphic Design. I learnt that my interests were broad and I enjoyed the fast pace of project turnover, and after several years stopped thinking of myself as a knitwear designer."

This passion for teaching means Sue's classes always inspire her. "That moment when you can almost hear the penny drop as someone finally 'gets it' with just 15 minutes left of the lesson is a joy! Sometimes people I've taught to crochet will share pictures of their work with me on social media and it's great to see the pleasure their new craft skills brings them."

Sue runs a Working with Colour Harmonies class, a hands-on painting day designed to help people work with colours and gain colour confidence. And recently she's been hosting crochet retreats in rural Norfolk, with plans to run them again in the near future. "My favourite classes are the six month blanket courses that I run; Homage to the (Granny) Square and Wallflowers," she enthuses. "These courses are as much about colour as they are about crochet and it's the most amazing thing to see your own design reflected back at you in multiple different colourways. I can see the pride that everyone takes in their creation and the gradual realisation that they have a creative soul."

"The feedback I get most from my students is 'I never imagined I could make something as beautiful as this' often followed by 'Even my husband is impressed!' I still really value that about crochet – it's easily accessible to anyone. I love the simple economy of one basic tool, and its infinite potential."

ONLINE OPPORTUNITY

The popularity of the Wallflowers course has sparked an idea for a new project. "Wallflowers grew as a 'Mystery Blanket' project that I initially ran for a small group of people at Norfolk Yarn, in Norwich," she explains. "I knew it was going to be a lovely blanket but really I had no idea how much impact the finished product would make. It's currently only available as a 'real life' course but I was getting lots of requests to make the pattern available, or to run it as an online course."

"I'd been thinking for some time about offering something to the online community who I think were beginning to feel a bit left out of the party, so when social isolation was introduced I knew immediately that this was my cue to develop an online project. There wasn't time to design and make a finished project to present to the online community so I just decided to announce that I was designing something new, called Crojo Retro, and if anyone wanted to join in they could."

Crojo Retro is still in its infancy but already proving a success. "It's a huge leap of faith and, if I'm honest, very scary, to be working on a mystery blanket live on social media, but so far the response has been really positive and

"I LOVE THE SIMPLE ECONOMY
OF ONE BASIC TOOL, AND ITS INFINITE POTENTIAL"

I'm enjoying the challenge," confesses Sue. "The design is based on stylised 1960s and 70s surface pattern, a bit Orla Kiely, or Mary Quant, and it's intended to be a little light hearted oasis in these dark times."

DESIGNS TO TREASURE

When Sue's not busy teaching she finds time to work on her own designs, and has a strong ethos she likes to stick to. "I made a conscious decision a couple of years ago that I would only design and make products that I genuinely believe deserve a place in the world, and that means I don't design many things – but I do like to take my time and create products that can be treasured and valued as heirloom pieces."

"Colour and surface pattern really motivate her: "The reason my recent projects have all been blankets is because a simple rectangular format is the perfect shape for exploring pattern and repetition." A current favourite yarn, Rowan Felted Tweed, has been used for all three of Sue's recent blanket designs. "I love the quality of the colours in the range, they have depth of colour that is both subtle and intense; the range of colours is huge and the whole collection just works beautifully." When it comes to techniques Sue has a particular love for working with multiple motifs that are pieced together. "I think there are a couple of reasons for this," she muses. "Firstly, it makes the work much more portable, but also because my work tends to grow and develop organically it's easier to manage if it's made up of lots of small pieces."

Despite having to juggle her own designing with online classes and projects right now, Sue still has plenty more ventures to look forward to, as her quest to connect with others through crochet continues. "I'll be resuming my [offline] crochet classes and working with some new local yarn shops later this year, but I'm also excited about the prospect of offering courses online to a much wider audience."

A few of her favourite things

When Sue puts down her hook...

"I love listening to podcasts (I especially like Russell Brand's Under the Skin) and audio books. I'm addicted to dystopian novels and box sets, and I'm happiest when I'm camping."

NOTES

Tunic is made in one piece from top down. Yoke is worked back and forth in rows, then Lower Section is joined into the round and worked in the round until hem. Button bands are added to the centre back Yoke opening. If you wish, you can make the Tunic longer by adding extra rows before the final 3 rows of the Lower Section.
1 turning ch is used on htr rows and 2 on tr rows; these do not count as sts throughout.

SIMPLE STEPS HOW TO MAKE A HALF TREBLE

1 To make a half treble crochet stitch, work to where you want the htr and then wind the yarn round the hook (yrh).

2 Insert the hook under the top two loops of the next stitch in the previous row. Wrap yarn around the hook again (yrh).

3 Pull the yarn through the stitch only (3 loops on hook).

4 Yarn round hook again, pull the yarn through all 3 loops. You've made a half treble crochet. Continue working htr into next and following sts to the end of the row.

HOOKSTER HAVEN

We've never spent so much time behind closed doors as we are now, and crafting for our homes is providing comfort for so many in these challenging times

Clockwise from top: Hannah wearing her Seaglass Bandana scarf; Hannah's squares blanket; Hattie's bright mandalas
Opposite: Emma's lantern and lockdown blanket complete her crochet nook

Our homes have been our absolute world these last few months, and some of us have found that added time has sparked creativity, inspiring crafty projects. Read on to discover what our homebody hooksters have been up to, and hopefully be inspired to make your own versions at home.

HATTIE'S COLOURFUL KEEPSAKES

My girls and I have painted rainbow pebbles to say a huge 'thank you' the NHS and all the other frontline workers, which we're displaying in the front garden. We're also quite into tie-dye too. It has become a very colourful house!

Getting crafty is an excellent way to unwind and feel like you're achieving something at the same time: it is the perfect activity to create a sense of wellbeing. My patterns for the Togetherness Mandala and Square and Pretty Petals Mandala are available for free. I hope they will bring a touch of happy to your home and make you smile.

We're spending so much time in our garden. My Happy Flower & Dreamcatcher pattern (available on www.thepetalshed.uk) is perfect as a coaster for your garden table.

They also look lovely made into a garland.

My ultimate 'lockdown recommendation' though is a blanket. There is something magical about choosing colours, ordering yarn (or making a dent in your stash), starting and watching it grow. Feeling like you've achieved something at the end and as you use and enjoy it is the best. When it comes to crafting, a sense of accomplishment is important – especially now.

EMMA'S LOCKDOWN LANTERNS

I love seeing how the crochet community have been keeping it all together at this time with their hooky creations. I have had a lot of ideas that have been bubbling under the surface. The other day I woke up and immediately started to crochet a lantern for no particular reason other than it just needed to happen! And several hours, (and cups of tea) later it was finished!

Lantern patterns are super-simple and can be worked around any hoop size – an old tapestry hoop is perfect. Any yarn can be used so it is a great stash buster too. Mine looks lovely in my bedroom. [Turn to page 65 for the pattern.]

“ IN TIMES OF STRESS
PEOPLE GRAVITATE TO THEIR HAPPY AND SAFE PLACE ”

I've also just finished a baby blanket using 20 balls of Ricorumi that I call 'the Lockdown Blanket'. My daughter and I have been trying our hand at freestyle embroidery and punch needle and we are loving it! I'll always look back at these pieces and remember this time in which we were all in it together.

HANNAH'S BLISSFUL BLANKETS

In times of stress I think people always gravitate to their happy and safe place. For lots of people, including me, this is craft. Crafting has always been important for my wellbeing and now it is even more so. When there are lots of things you can't control, it's comforting to find something that you can.

I've been sharing as many patterns as possible on my blog for the crochet community, and have had so many messages

Clockwise from top:
Sarah-Jane's cute
couch potato,
Kate's heartfelt
tribute to the NHS,
Sarah-Jane's Swirly
Squares Blanket, Kate's rainbows for her window

from people saying that they are crocheting at the moment to help them through it all.

I'm full of crochet design ideas right now! Blankets are the perfect way to pass the time for me. I would encourage everyone to learn a new stitch and use up some of your stash to make a blanket that you can get lost in creating, and then admire for years to come as a reflection of this time. I always look back at projects and remember what else I was doing when I made them. It might be being pregnant, or a hot summer, or a house move, or travelling: everything I make has a memory and a story for me – and this particular time in lockdown will certainly be one to remember.

SARAH-JANE'S CUTE COUCH POTATOES AND SWIRLY SQUARES

It helps to have something to aim for no matter how small. To remind me of this I've made an amigurumi Couch Potato to keep me motivated. I've been sharing crochet patterns online – such as a rainbow to make for a window, and a larger project: the Swirly Squares Blanket. Blankets are the perfect lockdown project.

A lot of what I make I can often remember what was happening at the time, how I was feeling or even what I might have been listening to or watching on TV. I like that crochet provokes memories. My Swirly Squares Blanket will of course remind me of my life during lockdown.

KATE'S POSITIVE PANTS

One of the first things I crocheted when it looked as though lockdown was imminent was a teeny, tiny pair of 'Positive Pants' – completely useless and of no practical help whatsoever but, having had a very stressful day working out what we were going to have to do in the weeks to come, it allowed me to pass a couple of hours, with nothing else in my head but just some yarn and a hook.

Yarn rainbows are the perfect project for our windows and to let frontline staff know we are thinking of them – including my daughter, who works for the NHS. I spent a lovely evening putting together a simple pattern. Rainbows became rainbows hearts and then rainbow bunting. All of the free patterns can be found on my blog page for everyone to enjoy and make for their own windows.

I am not normally a bright colour person so it completely took me by surprise how much I loved working with such a bright palette and in years to come they will definitely take me right back to this time.

At the back of my mind I have often thought about filming short crochet tutorials and so my new lockdown project has been exactly that: I now have my very own YouTube channel. It's been a giant learning curve, with much to still be learnt, but it's a start!

We hope you've been inspired by our hooksters to create extra-comforting crochet for a happy home – be sure to check out their Instagram feeds and websites to find out how to create these pieces for yourself.

Lose yourself in the pleasing geometry of this cleverly constructed blanket. The double hexagon motifs create an intricate, interlocking pattern that is soothingly hypnotic. Sleep well!

NOTES

Blanket is made up of 140 Spinning Hexagon Motifs and 28 Half Hexagon Motifs. The Spinning Hexagons are made up of two Hexagon shapes, which are sewn together using the tails.

Each Spinning Hexagon Motif uses four colours. You can use any colours in any order for each Motif; they will be referred to as Yarn A, Yarn B, Yarn C and Yarn D. The joining and Edging are all worked in Emmen, so use less of this shade when working the Motifs to ensure you have enough left at the end.

There is a Stitch Chart for the Spinning Hexagon Motif and a Layout Chart for joining; both Charts can be found on the opposite page.

SIMPLE STEPS HOW TO WORK A SLIP STITCH SEAM

1 Place pieces together, insert hook into the first stitch on both pieces. Make a slip knot (we've used a contrasting colour to make it easier to see) and place it onto the hook.

2 Pull the slip knot through both stitches to bring it to the front. Now insert hook into the 2nd stitch of both layers and work a slip stitch. Work a slip stitch in the 3rd stitches of both layers.

3 Continue working slip sts along the edge, as far as you need to. Fasten off, weave in ends, open out the seam and lightly press from the wrong side.

4 From the right side, the slip stitch seam forms an 'invisible' join (see above). It forms a firm, flat seam that won't give much stretch. It's best to use a matching yarn.

WHY DOES MY EDGE LOOK UNEVEN?

Brush up on your technique with our simple guide...

Last issue, I showed you the basics of working double crochet stitches into a foundation chain. Now that you've had chance to practise, you might find you're encountering a few problems – don't worry! In this issue I'll show you how to overcome the most common problems with working stitches into a foundation chain. I'll also show you an alternative method for working into the foundation chain – the 'back bumps' technique, which is my personal preference because it creates a neater finish at the bottom edge of your crochet fabric.

WHY DOES MY FIRST ROW OF STITCHES LOOK WRONG?

How to tackle common problems...

Step 1 Last issue, we made a practice row of double crochet (dc) stitches, which should have looked like this. In brief, we made 11 chains, skipped the first chain and worked a dc in the second chain and in each chain across. At the end of the row, you should have 10 dc. You can check by counting each little 'v' shape along the side of the fabric or count each plaited chain-like shape along the top.

Step 2 The most common problem you may encounter when making the above practice row is to accidentally skip a chain. It's easily done and here, I've missed a chain so I've only got 9 dc. There's only one solution – you'll have to remove the hook and pull on the yarn to undo your work, until you reach the skipped chain. This shows why it's so important to count your stitches at the end of each row – if you don't discover the error until the next row, you'll have more to undo!

Step 3 Another common issue is working tight stitches, which will pucker the chain, creating baggy-looking loops at the bottom edge, as shown here. Tight stitches will also be shorter than they should be, causing sizing problems – for example, 5 standard rows might usually measure 5cm, but 5 tight rows might only measure 3cm. To solve this problem, try to relax your tension – unwrap the working yarn from some of your fingers and make sure you make the loops at the shank of the hook, not the neck.

Step 4 Crocheting with a consistent tension is vital for creating a neat fabric, so get this right early on so that it doesn't hold you back. An inconsistent tension means uneven stitches, like here – some are tight and short, others are looser and taller. If your first row looks like this, don't worry – the fact is that every new crocheter's first row looks like this! The key to getting things looking neater is PRACTISE, until hooking stitches feels comfortable, familiar and consistent.

HOW DO I MAKE MY FOUNDATION ROW NEATER?

Try working into the 'back bump' of each chain instead...

Last issue, we showed you the standard method of working stitches into a foundation chain, which involves inserting the hook under the top two strands of each chain. In this alternative, you work into just the 'back bump' of each chain, to create a neater look along the bottom edge of your fabric – and you might even find it easier.

Step 1 To start, make 10 chains (remember not to count the active loop on the hook). Place this length so the plaited side is facing away from you – this is the 'wrong' side of the chain. Examine one chain and you'll see that it's made up of a top strand, a bottom strand and a central horizontal strand – this centre strand is the 'back bump' of the chain. Now insert a stitch marker under the back bump of the 10th chain, which is the horizontal strand closest to the hook.

Step 2 Turn the chain over so the plaited 'right' side is facing you. Work one extra chain (this counts as the turning chain, we'll explain more about this in a future workshop). To start the first dc, we're going to skip the first chain (the turning chain) and insert the hook into the back bump of the second chain from the hook – this is the chain with the stitch marker.

Step 3 You need to insert the hook under the back bump of the chain, which is where the stitch marker is placed, so let it guide you. Your inserted hook should look like this.

Step 4 Now work yrh and pull the new loop of yarn through the chain (two loops on hook). Use the hook to pull the loop up so it's fairly loose and sits slightly away from the chain – if the loop is too tight then your dc stitch will be too tight.

Step 5 Work yrh and you're going to pull this new loop through the two existing loops on the hook...

Step 6 Like this. Your first dc is finished!

Step 7 To work the next dc, tilt the chain towards you so you can see the back bumps. Insert your hook into the next empty bump.

Step 8 Work the dc stitch as before, repeating Steps 4-6.

Step 9 Continue to work a dc into each chain across the row, by repeating Steps 7-8. Take care not to twist the chain as you work. You should have 10 dc stitches, so count them to make sure. Once you reach the end, you can remove the stitch marker. I'll explain the next steps in the next issue.

SIRDAR CROFTER DK

WEIGHT DK
CONTENT 60% acrylic,
 25% cotton, 15% wool
BALL 50g/170m
HOOK 4mm
RRP £3.29

Describing itself as a 'Fair Isle effect' yarn is pretty accurate, thanks to the spray-dying technique for colouring. It features long sections of colour changes in the variegation, and with a delightful DK weight it's a great all-rounder for your everyday crochet projects. The blend of fibres creates an interesting yarn to work with – the acrylic and cotton content give a strong and stable yarn, while the 15% of wool gives it a nice natural feel. It's available in 18 shade combinations and is machine washable at 40°C.

 37% cotton, 8% PBT
BALL 100g/450m
HOOK 3.25mm
RRP £6.49

As the name suggests, King Cole's new yarn is the perfect choice for summer projects. The combination of bamboo, cotton and PBT (that's polybutylene terephthalate to you and me – a polymer with stretchy qualities) hooks into a lightweight fabric with a soft drape and a silky feel.

The yarn features a distinctive crimp that adds a nice detail to your fabric and it's available in six variegated shades. King Cole recommends Summer as a sock yarn, but it will work equally brilliantly with any of their 4ply patterns. Machine wash at 40°C.

SKEIN 100g/232m
HOOK 4mm
RRP £3.99

There are many reasons to love Wanderlust yarn... but the thing that took us by surprise is the 100% acrylic content. You won't believe that this is a completely synthetic yarn, it's amazingly soft, features an incredibly natural halo and a lovely loose twist that's more like one you'd expect from a handspun yarn. The colours are rich and deep, with nice long gradual colour changes. There are 19 fabulous colour combinations, ranging from neon brights to subtle shades. The yarn is machine washable at 30°C.

If you've ever wondered what it's like to crochet with something that has almost as much bounce and stretch as elastic, then Lion Brand's Rebound yarn is definitely one for you to try. It feels strange at first, being super-silky as well as stretchy, but once you get the hang of it, it's actually quite fun, and means your stitches bounce back into place if you give them a pull (great for projects that would normally stretch out over time). It's available in 10 bright multi-coloured shades and can be machine washed and dried.

Crochet essentials

Over the next few pages, you'll find simple step-by-step guides to many useful stitches and techniques that you'll use every time you pick up a hook

HOLDING THE HOOK

Try these methods and see which works best

PENCIL METHOD

Hold the hook like a pencil, in your right hand (if you're right-handed), about 3-5cm from the hooked end. If your hook has a flat area, you'll find it comfortable to hold it here.

KNIFE METHOD

Hold the hook between your thumb and forefinger, about 3-5cm from the hooked end, resting the end of the hook against your palm. This will give you lots of control.

HOLDING THE YARN

Even tension results in even stitches

METHOD ONE

Pass the ball end of the yarn between the little finger and third fingers of your left hand (if you are right-handed), then behind the third and middle fingers, over your index finger.

METHOD TWO

Loop the ball end of the yarn loosely around the little finger of your left hand, then take it over the third finger, behind the middle finger and over your index finger.

MAKING A SLIPKNOT The first loop on the hook

1 Hold the tail of the ball of yarn in your left hand and drape the yarn clockwise over the top of it to form a loose, circular loop.

2 Hold the loop between left thumb and forefinger, then insert the crochet hook through the centre of the loop from front to back.

3 Catch the ball end of the yarn with the hook and pull it back through the centre of the loop, taking the yarn through with it.

4 Pull both ends of the yarn to tighten the knot, then pull just the ball end to tighten the loop so it's close to the hook, but not touching it.

CHAIN STITCH Use this stitch to make your foundation chain

1 Hold the hook in your right hand, and both the yarn end and the working yarn in your left hand. Move the hook under and over the yarn to wrap it around anticlockwise.

2 Pull the hook towards the slipknot, catching the yarn in the hook, and pulling it through the slipknot loop. This forms your first chain (ch) stitch. Repeat steps 1 and 2 to form a chain length.

3 This is what your row of chains will look like. Hold the chain with your left hand near the hook, to keep the tension. Keep going until you have the number of chains that's stated in your pattern.

How to count chains

Each chain or loop counts as one stitch. Never count your first slipknot or the loop on the hook (called the working loop). So that you can be accurate, make sure the chain is not twisted and that the front is facing you.

SLIP STITCH (ss)

This stitch has no height – often used to join rounds

1 The slip stitch is used to join a length of chain into the round. Insert the hook from front to back into the first chain you worked. Wrap yarn round the hook (yrh) in an anticlockwise direction.

2 Pull the yarn through the chain stitch (as shown) and then the loop already on the hook to make a slip stitch. You can also work this stitch into each stitch along a row to form a neat edging.

WORKING IN ROWS

Follow these simple rules to construct crochet fabric

1 The first row is made by working across the foundation chain from right to left. At the end of the chain or row, turn the work so that the yarn is behind the hook.

2 For the next row, first make the turning chain for the stitch you're about to work (see opposite). Now work the next stitch into the top of the stitches on your first row, missing the first stitch.

DOUBLE CROCHET (dc) US term: single crochet

One of the key stitches in crochet, doubles are simple, compact stitches that form a dense fabric

1 To make a double crochet stitch, insert the hook under the top two loops of the next stitch on the previous row.

2 Wind the yarn around the hook (yrh).

3 Pull the yarn through the stitch, giving you two loops on your crochet hook.

4 Yarn round hook again, then pull the yarn through both loops. There's your double crochet made and you'll have one loop left on the hook, ready to do the next stitch.

HALF TREBLE CROCHET (htr) US term: half double crochet

A handy stitch that's between double and treble crochet in size, and it looks slightly looser than double crochet

1 To make a half treble crochet stitch, work to where you want the htr and then wind the yarn round the hook (yrh).

2 Insert the hook under the top two loops of the next stitch in the previous row. Wrap yarn around the hook again (yrh).

3 Pull the yarn through the stitch only (3 loops on hook).

4 Yarn round hook again, pull the yarn through all 3 loops. You've made a half treble crochet. Continue working htr into next and following sts to the end of the row.

TREBLE CROCHET (tr) US term: double crochet

One of the most popular stitches in crochet, this simple stitch is twice as high as a double crochet stitch

1 To work a treble crochet, start by winding yrh and then insert the hook under the top two loops of the stitch on the previous row.

2 Wrap the yarn around the hook (yrh) and pull the yarn through the stitch only.

3 You will now have 3 loops on the hook. Yrh again, and draw the yarn through just the first 2 loops on the hook.

4 You will now have 2 loops on the hook. Yrh again and draw the yarn through the remaining loops on the hook. Your treble crochet is complete.

DOUBLE TREBLE CROCHET (dtr) US term: treble crochet

This is a stitch regularly used as an elongated version of the treble (described above). It's worked in a very similar way to the treble, as follows:

- 1 Make a foundation chain. Skip 4ch, *yrh twice, and insert the hook under the top loop of the next ch.
- 2 Yrh, pull the yarn through the ch loop only (4 loops on hook).
- 3 Yrh and pull the yarn through 2 loops only (3 loops on hook).

- Yrh and pull the yarn through 2 loops only (2 loops on hook).
- 4 Yrh and pull the yarn through the remaining 2 loops. Repeat from * to make more dtr sts.
- 5 To make the next row of dtr, turn work and ch4. This turning chain counts as the first dtr in a new row. Skip first st at the base of the t-ch, work 1dtr under the top two loops of the 2nd stitch in the previous row; continue to the end of the row.

TRIPLE TREBLE CROCHET (ttr) US term: double treble crochet

This is one of the longest standard crochet stitches and is mainly used in fancy stitch patterns. It's taller than a double treble crochet stitch (described left) and is worked in a very similar way, as follows:

- 1 Make a foundation ch. Skip 5 ch, *yrh 3 times, insert hook under top loop of next ch.
- 2 Yrh, pull yarn through ch loop only (5 loops on hook).
- 3 † Yrh, draw loop through

- 2 loops only. Repeat from † 3 times more and your triple treble will be finished. Repeat from * to make more ttr sts.
- 4 To make the next row, turn work and ch5. This turning chain counts as the first triple treble in a new row. Skip first st at base of the t-ch. Work 1 triple treble, inserting hook under the top 2 loops of the 2nd st in the previous row; continue to the end of the row.

TURNING CHAIN (t-ch)

For an even finish, start each row with a turning chain

In crochet, you need to add turning chains (t-chs) to the beginning of rows. The reason for this is to bring the hook up to the height of the stitches you're crocheting. Each basic stitch has its own number of chains. The table below tells you how many t-ch sts form the first stitch. *For dc, usually the turning chain does not count as a stitch, and the first stitch of the row is worked into the stitch at the base of the turning chain.

STITCH	Add to foundation chain before starting row	Skip at start of foundation row (counts as first st)	For turning chain (counts as first st)
Double crochet	1 ch	1 ch*	1 ch*
Half treble	1 ch	2 ch	2 ch
Treble	2 ch	3 ch	3 ch
Double treble	3 ch	4 ch	4 ch
Triple treble	4 ch	5 ch	5 ch

How to count stitches

Check your work is correct

Being able to count your stitches is very important and helps you to ensure that you're following a pattern correctly. It's a good idea to count your stitches at the end of every row. To count short stitches such as double crochet, look at the plaited tops (see above right). For taller stitches, count the upright 'stems' – each 'stem' is counted as a stitch (see right).

HOW TO CHANGE COLOUR

Create stripes and other colour effects

1 Before you work the final yrh (yarn round hook) on the last stitch of a row in the old colour, drop the old yarn and then pick up the new one with your hook.

2 Pull through a loop of the new yarn to finish the old stitch. The working loop will be in the new colour. Continue, keeping the old yarn at the wrong side.

INCREASING AND DECREASING

Shaping stitches are vital for making garments

INCREASE To increase one stitch is very simple – work one stitch into the next stitch on the row below. When you've finished, work another stitch into the same stitch.

DECREASE For a quick decrease, just skip one stitch. For a neater look, work the first part of one stitch and then begin the next stitch. Finish both together.

SEWING SEAMS

You can join crochet seams by using a tapestry needle or a crochet hook, using one of these four methods

1 Sewing with a tapestry needle is the regular and neat way to join seams. Place two pieces of crochet right sides together and oversew them as shown above, using a tapestry or yarn needle.

2 To slip stitch a seam, place the crochet pieces right sides together. *Insert hook into both edge stitches, yrh and pull through to complete 1 slip stitch; rep from * working into the next edge stitches, keeping work fairly loose.

3 For a dc seam, place the crochet pieces right sides together, or wrong sides together for a visible seam. Work as for slip stitch seam, using double crochet instead of slip stitch.

4 A useful variation on the dc seam, the dc and chain seam is used when less bulk and/or greater flexibility is needed. Work 1 double crochet and 1 chain alternately.

How to check your tension

Make and measure a swatch to check your tension

Most crochet patterns state the tension required, in rows and stitches of a specific type. Make a swatch at least 15cm square and check that your tension matches. Place a ruler across the swatch and insert two pins, 10cm apart. Then place the ruler along a column of stitches and insert two pins 10cm apart. Count the stitches and rows between the pins – if you have less than the pattern, your tension is too loose so you need to use a smaller hook, but if you have too many, use a larger hook. It's usually better to match the stitches than rows, because you can always work more or fewer rows.

FOUNDATION RING

Create a foundation ring for working in the round

1 Make a chain the length stated in the pattern instructions. Next, insert the crochet hook into the first chain. Close the ring with a slip stitch, working yrh...

2 And pull yarn through 2 loops on hook. Now you're ready to start crocheting in the round, following the instructions given right.

WORKING STITCHES INTO A RING

To make circles, tubes and other shapes

1 Make a foundation ring and work the t-ch (3ch for treble sts). Work a treble st as usual, but insert hook into centre of ring. For treble sts, yrh, insert hook into ring.

2 Finish the treble as usual (yrh, pull yarn through ring, yrh, pull yarn through first 2 loops, yrh, pull yarn through 2 loops). Work more sts into the ring as needed.

MAGIC LOOP

An alternative foundation ring for working in the round

1 To start a Magic Loop, don't make a slipknot. Instead, make a loop with the yarn, leaving a tail around 10cm long. Make sure the tail end is under the working yarn.

2 Now insert your hook into the loop, from front to back. Wrap the working yarn around the hook and pull the yarn through the loop.

3 Make a t-ch for the sts you want to work (above, we made 1 t-ch for dc). Work your sts into the Magic Loop, over both the loop and the tail end (so two yarn strands).

4 Once you've worked the first round of stitches, pull the tail end of yarn to draw up the ring. Work a slip stitch to join the last and first sts to finish the first round (as instructed in the guide below).

JOINING ROUNDS

Finish off each round of crochet stitches nice and neatly by using a slip stitch

1 To close a round of stitches, work a slip stitch into the top of the turning chain. To do this, insert the hook into the top stitch of the turning chain.

2 Then place the yarn round the hook. Pull the yarn through the turning chain stitch and through the original stitch on your hook.

3 You've slip stitched the round together! Before working another round, be sure to make the required turning chain. Always work rounds on the right side, unless your pattern instructs you otherwise.

Rounds or spirals

Check which technique you need to use

Some patterns are worked in rounds that are joined together at the end of each round (see left). Other patterns are worked in a spiral so you don't need to join the rounds at the end, just keep going, working into the next stitch on the previous row. Amigurumi toys are often worked in a spiral like this.

HOW TO GET A PERFECT FINISH

To prevent your hard work unravelling once you’ve finished crocheting, fasten the end off carefully, following our instructions below

Complete the final stitch, then cut the yarn about 15cm from the work. Pull it through the last loop on the hook and pull to close the loop. Thread the yarn tail onto a tapestry needle and weave into the back of the work. Most crochet items don’t need a lot of blocking, but cotton lace work usually does. To do this, carefully pin out the item with rust-proof pins, mist with a water spray and leave to dry naturally.

Reliable sidekick

A versatile jute bag has carried Sharna Moore's essentials on many an outing, and reminds her of a favourite holiday

My current favourite crochet project would have to be the summer bag that I made last year. I made a bag out of a massive ball of jute twine yarn and two wooden handles. It has been on many amazing journeys, met some lovely people and carried my well-loved essentials over the last year. The bag endured some damage when my husband accidentally stepped on it! He snapped one of the wooden handles, so I had to carefully replace them.

I've received many lovely comments on the design of the bag when I've been out and about and received a lot of publicity over Instagram. This encourages my motivation to keep creating. I used Nutscene Natural Jute Twine yarn and a 7mm hook to create the summer bag. The wooden handles were purchased online. The jute may feel a little hard going on your hands when you're working with it; however the texture and strength it gives the bag is totally worth it. I made the bag starting from the top, going down to the bottom, in basic double crochet stitches, working every other row into backloops only to give it some added texture.

My inspiration behind the design of the bag comes from recent fashion trends. If you step into any boutique or clothing shop, or happen to be strolling through the lanes in Old Town Rhodes, Greece, you would come across many bags designed with a jute style yarn. I've loved every single design I've seen of the bag so I decided to make my own unique version.

Like I said, this bag has been on some cool adventures, one of them being last year when I visited the Greek island of Corfu for the first time. The bag was pretty much on my hand the whole time from collecting beautiful shells from sandy beaches to carrying my sunglasses and holiday novels. The crochet project will always replay memories for me every time I pick it up.

It's also the perfect bag to accompany you to that brilliant summer party we are all longing for at the moment during lockdown; it will match perfectly with any romantic sundress and being such a strong bag it can hold a few bottles of fizz!

You can find the pattern for this bag on Sharna's blog www.sharnamoore123.wixsire.com

Crochet

GETTING STARTED!

What will I need to do broomstick crochet?

Step 1 You can use any yarn for broomstick crochet, but when you're first learning, it's best to use a smooth yarn that won't split when you work with it. Grab a standard hook to go with it, in a suitable size for the yarn (check the yarn's ball band). We're using a DK yarn and a 4mm hook.

Step 2 You also need a large 'broomstick' – you could use a crafting dowel, large knitting needle, ruler, marker pen, cardboard tube or an actual broomstick. Most patterns will quote the diameter of the 'broomstick' but if you use a ruler, measure the circumference and divide by pi (3.14) to get the diameter equivalent.

Step 3 In order to work broomstick crochet rows, you'll need a foundation chain or a foundation row (or rows) of stitches. To start our fabric, we've worked a foundation row of 10 dc stitches (to do this, ch11, dc in 2nd ch from hook and in each ch to end), but you could work any number of stitches you like.

Easy to learn but packed with creative potential, broomstick crochet is a great way to create light, open fabrics with fantastic drape. The technique was traditionally worked using a crochet hook and a broomstick handle (hence the name), but you can use all sorts of sticks (see below). We'll show you just what to do and then you can use your new skills to hook our colourful bowl.

BROOMSTICK ROW

How do I start making broomstick loops?

Step 1 Once you have a foundation chain or row(s) of stitches, you can begin your first 'broomstick row', which involves placing long loops onto your broomstick. At the start of a broomstick row, don't turn your work. Instead, use the hook to elongate the active loop.

Step 2 Insert the broomstick into this large loop. You'll find it easier if you keep a fairly loose tension at this stage. Remove the hook from the loop and restore your tension on the yarn to make sure the loop sits fairly snugly on the broomstick. Try to make sure the loop isn't too tight, but also not too loose.

Step 3 Insert your crochet hook into the top of the next stitch (or into the next chain if you've started with a foundation chain instead). Work yrh. At this stage, you might find that the broomstick gets in the way, so feel free to tilt the fabric in order to see what you're doing.

Step 4 Pull up a loop as usual at the front of the fabric. The most comfortable way to hold your broomstick is to stabilise it with your non-hook hand, while also holding the fabric you've made.

Step 5 Use the hook to lengthen this new loop and guide it onto your broomstick. Be careful not to twist the loop. Keep your tension loose at this stage. If you're using a large knitting needle, make sure you use the hook to take the loop right up to the straight section of the needle.

Step 6 Remove the hook from the loop and restore your tension to make sure the loop sits fairly snugly on the broomstick. Remember to keep your loop tension consistently quite snug – not too tight and not too loose.

Step 7 Repeat Steps 3-6 to pull up a loop in all the stitches (or chains) from the row below. At the end of a broomstick row, your work should look something like this. If you had 10 stitches in your foundation row (or chain) then you should now have 10 loops on the broomstick.

STITCH ROW

How do I work stitches into the loops?

Step 1 Now you can begin your first 'stitch row', which involves working stitches into the broomstick loops to secure them. At the start of a stitch row, don't turn your work. Instead, insert the hook into the first two loops, as shown. Be careful not to pull on the working yarn, which will shorten the final loop – instead, try to keep the two loops at the same height.

Step 2 Work yrh and pull up a loop. This process brings the yarn up to the height of the loops, a bit like a turning chain.

Step 3 Now you need to work an actual turning chain for the stitches you want to work on this row. We're going to work a row of dc stitches, which is standard for most broomstick fabrics, but you could use any crochet stitch you like. So for dc, ch1. If you plan to work taller stitches, work more chains at this stage.

Step 4 The first two broomstick loops will now be secure, so you can either take them off the broomstick or just slide them a little further down it. Use your fingers to angle the loops so they form an 'O' shape, to make the next stages easier. Next we're going to work 2dc into the first two broomstick loops. To do this, insert your hook into the first two loops as before.

Step 5 Work a dc as usual – yrh, pull up a loop, yrh and pull through two loops.

Step 6 Work a second dc in the same place, as shown here. You should now have 2dc worked into the first two broomstick loops.

Step 7 To continue, you need to work 2dc into the next two broomstick loops. To do this, insert the hook into the next two broomstick loops as before.

Step 8 Now make a dc as usual – yrh, pull up a loop, yrh and pull through two loops on hook. Work a second dc in the same place. You should now have 2dc in the next two broomstick loops.

Step 9 Repeat Steps 7-8 to work 2dc into each pair of broomstick loops across the row. You should have created five broomstick 'O' shapes, with 10 dc at the end of the stitch row.

How do I grow my work?

At the end of the first few rows you will have a foundation row of dc, a broomstick row of elongated loops and a stitch row of dc to secure the long loops. To continue your fabric, you could work some plain rows of standard crochet, such as dc or treble. Or work another broomstick row, followed by another stitch row. When your fabric is the desired size, just fasten off as usual at the end of a stitch row.

On the stitch row, we worked into pairs of broomstick loops, but you can make your groups as small or large as you like. For example, you could work 1dc into each individual broomstick loop, or work 3dc into a group of three broomstick loops. The effects vary depending on your broomstick size and yarn.

To keep your fabric the same width, make sure that on the standard stitch rows you work the same number of stitches as there are broomstick loops – so work a total of 20 dc for 20 broomstick loops. However, with a bit of maths know-how, you can choose the format of the broomstick loop groups. For example, for 20 broomstick loops, you could have five groups of four loops (also called a 4-loop cluster), each with 4 dc – or you could have four groups of five loops, each with 5 dc.
