THE COMPLETE POEM WITH EASY-TO-MAKE
AMIGURUMI CHARACTERS

Mitsuki ☆ Hoshi • Clement C. Moore

“’Twas the Night Before Christmas”

Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugarplums danced in their heads;
And Mamma in her kerchief and I in my cap
Had just settled down for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters, and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave the luster of midday to objects below,
When what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer,

With a little old driver so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:

Now, Dasher! Now, Dancer!

Now, Prancer and Vixen!

On, Comet! On, Cupid!

On, Donder and Blitzen!

To the top of the porch!
To the top of the wall!
Now dash away! Dash away!
Dash away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky;
So up to the housetop the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.

As I drew in my head and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from
his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all
tarnished with ashes and soot.
A bundle of toys he had flung
on his back,
And he looked like a peddler
just opening his pack.

His eyes, how they twinkled! His dimples, how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow.

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke, it encircled his head like a wreath;
He had a broad face and a little round belly
That shook, when he laughed, like a bowlful of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself.
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

He spoke not a word, but

And filled all the stockings,

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,

Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!"

4. Attach the legs to the feet.
5. Attach the eyes and ears to the head.
6. Embroider the mouth to the head and apply the cheek powder.
7. Attach the head to the body.
8. Attach the reddish-brown yarn as hair.
9. Cut the felt into a heart shape and glue it to the chest.

How to attach the hair on the head:

Prepare the two strands of thread. For the front part of the hair, embroider it on rows 2–7 of the head. For the longer parts of the hair, use the two strands with the knot to insert and pull the threads from the place where you want the hair to start. Trim the threads to the desired length. Transplant the hair from rows 1–3 of the head, so that it completely covers the top of the head. Bond the hair to the head, and trim it to your preferred length.

2. Attach the legs to the chest.
3. Stuff cotton into all of the parts except the ears and hands.
5. Attach the feet to the legs.
6. Attach the ears to the head, and glue on the eyes.
7. Embroider the mouth and apply the cheek powder.
8. Attach the head to the body.
9. Attach short pieces of yarn to the head to look like hair.

How to attach the hair to the head:

Crochet brown yarn on the head, from rows 10–14, then rows 8–11, and then rows 5–9, and so on. Your stitches do not need to be perfectly neat. If they are, they could look too stiff. Once the hair is on, arrange it as you see fit.

Marking pins, eight pieces with pearly heads

(alternatively you can use sew on pearly beads)

Glue

Size 4 crochet hook

Step-by-step method

1. Crochet each part, leaving a long piece of yarn at the top of the wreath.
2. Stuff cotton into the wreath, and then close it up.
3. Tie the ribbon with the yarn as explained the diagram.
4. Wrap the central part of the ribbon around the ribbon and crochet it on the wrong side.
5. Attach the ribbon to the wreath body.
6. Cut short in the needle part of the marking pins, add glue on their tips, and insert them into the wreath body. (If you are using beads, just glue them on.)
7. Make a loop with the yarn at the top of the wreath, and then close up the wreath.
