Assembly:

Fold the bottom up, at approximately row 8. Fold the top down, at approximately row 19, so they meet in the middle, with a 1-2 row overlap. I found it easiest to pin them in place at this point. Join yarn on one end, and sc through all layers, down the length of this end. Fasten off. Join yarn on opposite end, and repeat. When you reach the last stitch, ch 15. Sl st in same st as your beginning ch (Creating a hanging loop). Ch 1, turn, and sl st in each ch back to the beginning. Fasten off. Weave in all ends.

Sew a small button on the center front of pouch for closing. It should easily fit through one of the stitches on the opposite flap.

Row 1: ch 35. Hdc in 2nd ch from hook, and each remaining ch. (34 sts)

Row 2: ch 1, TURN. Sc in each st across. (34 sts)

Row 3: ch 1, TURN. Fpdc around 1st hdc st of row 1. Hdc in next sc st of row 2.

Hdc in 1st sc st of row 4. Fpdc around next hdc st of row 3. Repeat (*) across. (34 sts)

Row 6: ch 1, TURN. Sc in each st across. (34 sts)

Rows 7-90: Continue repeating rows 2-6, in order. Fasten off.

Lay piece out with wrong side up. Fold left corner up to meet top edge. Fold right corner down to meet bottom edge. Flip entire right side up, to cross and meet left side. (See photos) Pin to hold, for best results.

Sew bag together, where sides meet, using whatever joining method you prefer. I just slip stitched through both layers.

Handle Strap:

Join yarn on either side, in the 2nd st before (or after) the top point. Ch 50. Sl st in same corresponding stitch on opposite side top point. Sl st in next st. Ch 1, TURN. Hdc in each st across strap. Sl st in 1st st before (or after) point. Sl st in point. Ch 1, TURN.

Hdc in each st across strap. Sl st in point. Sl st in next st after (or before) point. Ch 1, TURN.

Hdc in each st across strap. Sl st in each of the next 2 sts after point. You may fasten off here, and weave in ends, or, if you'd like a button closure, continue on~

Sl st down to bottom point on front (or back) of bag. Ch 15. Sl st up to opposite side. When you reach the base of the handle fasten off.

Rejoin yarn on opposite side of handle, and sl st in each st on opposite edge. When you reach the handle again, fasten off. Weave in all ends.

Stitch a button to center front of bag, and fasten loop over it to close.

I used a "C" clip, to fasten the accessory bags to purse handle. ☺
