Hair Poof:

With 1 strand of each color together, wrap around your hand 3 times. Carefully pull off your hand, and tie a length of yarn around center, so you have loops sticking out either end. You can cut the loops, or leave them loopy ☺

Assembly:

Referring to picture, sew each piece in place. Tie hair poof to center top of hat. Place the eyes where desired on center front of hat, just below the start of the patterning row. Sew 1 small black button in center of each eye. Stitch the beak to center front, below and between eyes. (You can either lightly stuff it, or squish it flat like I did.) Stitch the wattle on, beginning just above the beak, and trailing down the side. On the underside, center back of hat, near the brim, stitch a small button in place. This is to button the cape on to the hat. Weave in all ends. Your hat is finished!

Bonus Ideas:

You can easily make this into a Crow, or other fun bird by changing the colors, and leaving off the wattle! Try using all Black for a darling Crow, or all Blue for a little Bluebird!
