Then sew the black sequins and sew the eyes onto a head.

Now make a smile:-) Below is step by step photo-tutorial how I made a smile:-) It is without text – thank you for understanding.

Fasten off free threads.

Sew the head of frog with a coaster together as you see on the pictures below. Begin with sewing on the under side of coaster and then sew the inner site

The head should stand without any prop.

You could also embroider the crown by beads and spangles. It is up to your imagination.

You have finished it ☺
