Hello and welcome...

...to the third issue of Knitting & Crochet magazine.

We can't thank you enough for your overwhelming response to our brand-new magazine: since our first issue went on sale many of you have contacted us to say how much you like it. It's wonderful to hear that you're loving the projects we've featured so far.

So, we hope you'll be just as thrilled by the contents of this issue. And with Easter as the inspiration for our seasonal collection (p28) – three adorable bunnies to knit or crochet, a basket of pretty crocheted eggs, a novelty knitted hen and her chicks, a pot of gorgeous knitted flowers and a handy, rainbow-bright crocheted shopper – we think you'll be delighted!

As a bit of a contrast to all things bright and beautiful, take a look at our 'Knitting The Blues' feature (p6) and its classic collection of denim-style knits in my favourite cable patterns. It's a look that never goes out of fashion.

Do send us pics of anything you create; we love to see what you've all been knitting and crocheting – and it doesn't need to have been made from a pattern we've featured in our magazines. Any that really catch our eye will be featured on 'We made these!' (p71).

See you next month!

Whether you're a seasoned Woman's Weekly reader or picking up our fabulous new Knitting & Crochet magazine for the first time, we're aware that, while of course you'll love to knit and/or crochet, you'll also have different skills at different levels. So we've signposted each project in the magazine with a new rating, from Easy Peasy to Quite A Challenge, as a guide to help you decide if the pattern suits your ability. However, we pride ourselves on our clear instructions, so you can try something that's more challenging or simply enjoy your skill.

Simply Timeless

With its classic, clean lines, Marion Foale's stylish jacket will never go out of fashion

Knitted history

Marion Foale studied fashion design at the Royal College of Art. On attaining her degree in 1961, she launched one of Carnaby Street's trendiest boutiques, Foale and Tuffin, with fellow art student Sally Tuffin.

During the Sixties, they designed clothes for films such as Kaleidoscope, starring Susannah York and Warren Beatty, and Two for the Road with Audrey Hepburn and Albert Finney.

At the beginning of the 1970s, Marion settled into family life on the Warwickshire borders. Realising that there was a market for quality knitwear, she set about producing her own collection, from home, using her fashion background to design a new style of tailored structured shapes with an imaginative use of traditional stitches.

Forty years on, Marion runs an international fashion business, selling her exclusive range to customers all over the world. The collection is available from many special stockists throughout the UK, as well as stores across the United States and Japan.

Attention to detail is a key part of Marion's design style – her pieces are elegant and flattering, with exquisite tailoring. You can buy this pink jacket pattern at womansweeklyshop.co.uk/knits

To make up

From bendy rollers, make a skeleton thus: Take length of yarn and wind around top of one roller for leg and tie. Take these ends around end of next roller, but with long end of roller pointing at opposite direction (spine), wind the ends around spine roller twice, pull up tightly and tie. Finally wind the ends twice around the end of next roller for second leg, pull up tightly and secure. Next, take 2 rollers for arms and overlap ends. These ends should be long enough to allow for spine roller to be enclosed at shoulder position. Tie overlapped ends firmly. Make a ring with remaining roller for head, bringing ends to top of spine roller and tie securely in position.

Join row-ends on legs and arms. Fold lower and upper body pieces in half and join side seams. Sew in tops of legs to lower body piece and top of arms to upper body. Insert small amount of stuffing to end of arms and feet. Now dress skeleton, pushing arms and legs in position. Bend legs for feet. Stuff body around skeleton and join at centre. Join row ends of head, leaving opening at centre big enough to insert the skeleton head through. Stuff head around roller and sew to body. Join row-ends on each ear and with this seam at centre front, sew ears to top of head. With Black embroider eyes and with Grey, embroider nose and mouth.

Arrange front squares in 3 rows of 3 squares each and sew them together. Join back and front together around sides, leaving an opening at one side. Insert cushion pad and close opening.

Tips & ideas

These designs were created to use up oddments of yarn. Make sure that yarns are of the same quality and fibre – ie, all wool or all synthetic and DK or 4-ply – to avoid any washing problems. We used a mix of bright and dark colours, but you could use pastels or naturals, or shades of one colour. The square on which our featured designs are based measures 15cm square. Make 4 squares for small cushion cover, adjusting instructions of back to fit smaller front; 24 squares makes a cot blanket, joined in 6 rows of 4 squares and finished off with adjusted lengths of border pieces, or carry on knitting squares until you've enough to make a bedspread.

KNITTING WORKSHOP

Our simple instructions will teach you all about the basic knitting stitches. Then you can practise your brand-new skills with the easy project on page 53

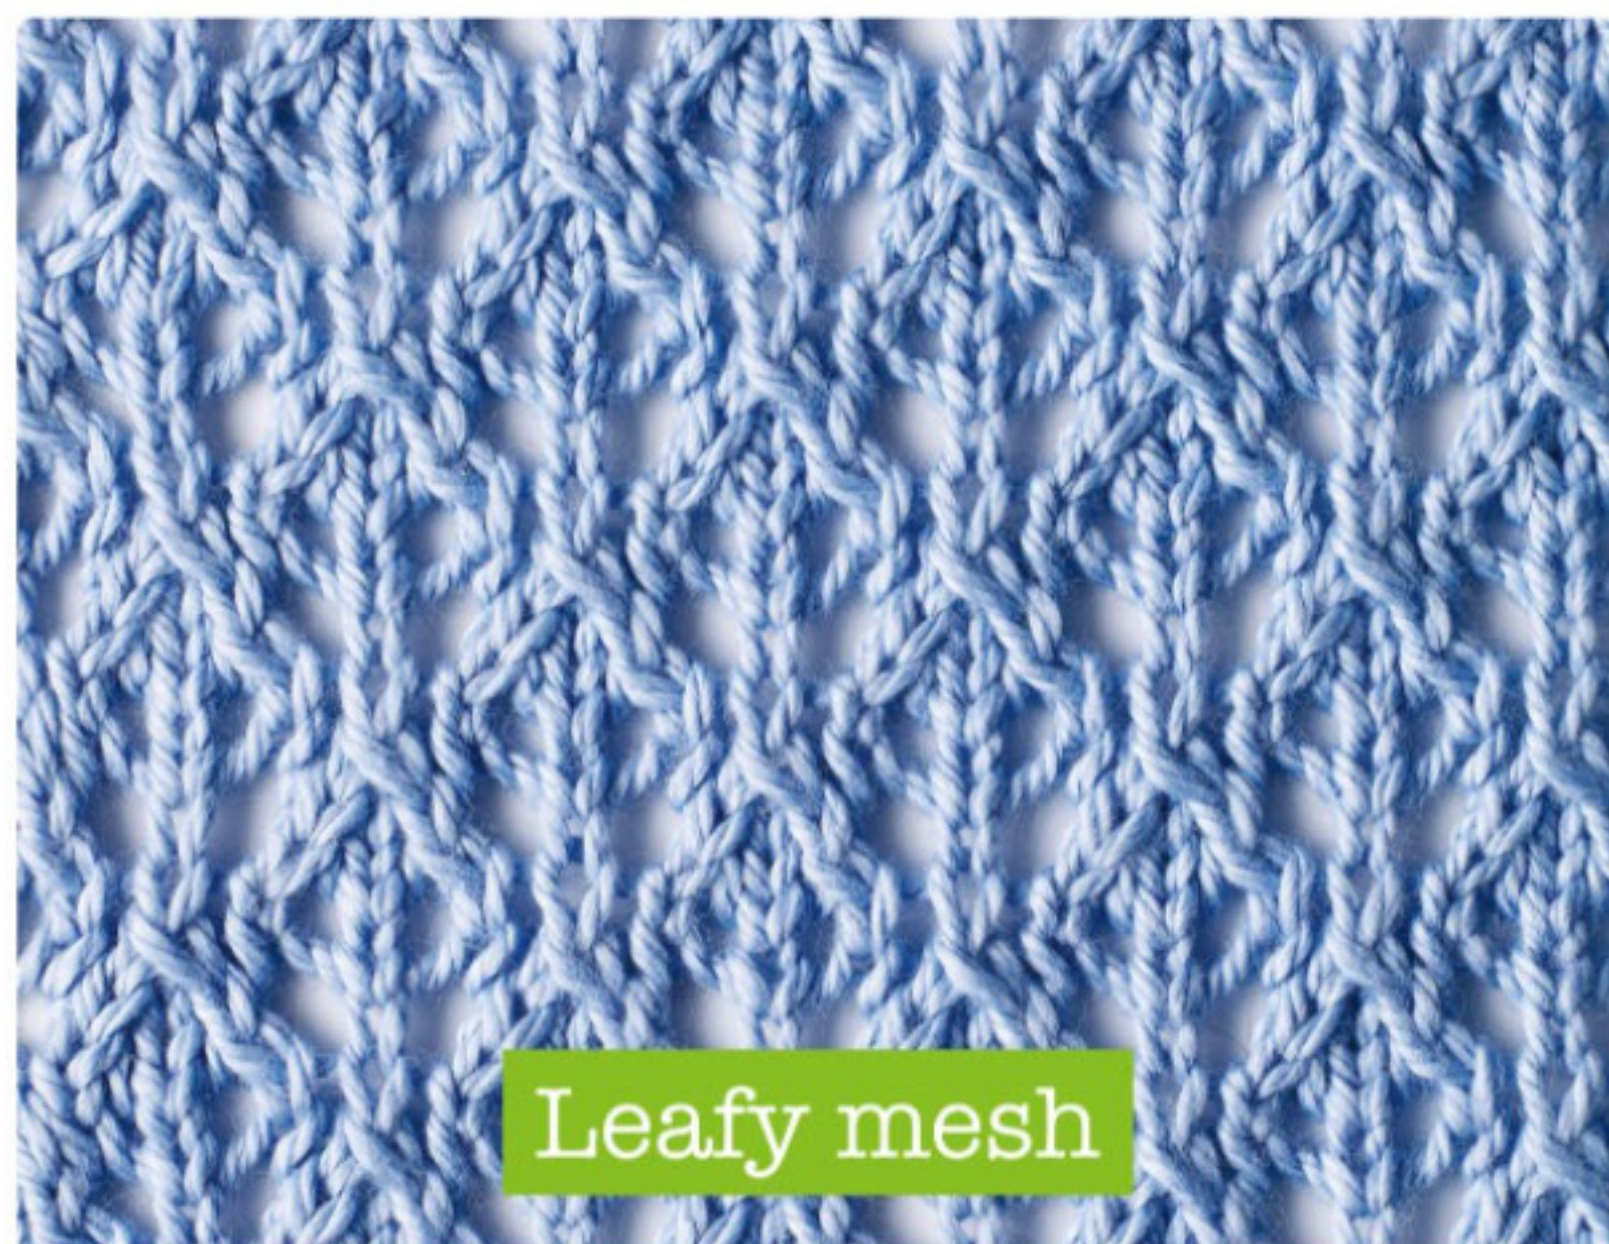

Knit Stitch Library

Diagonals

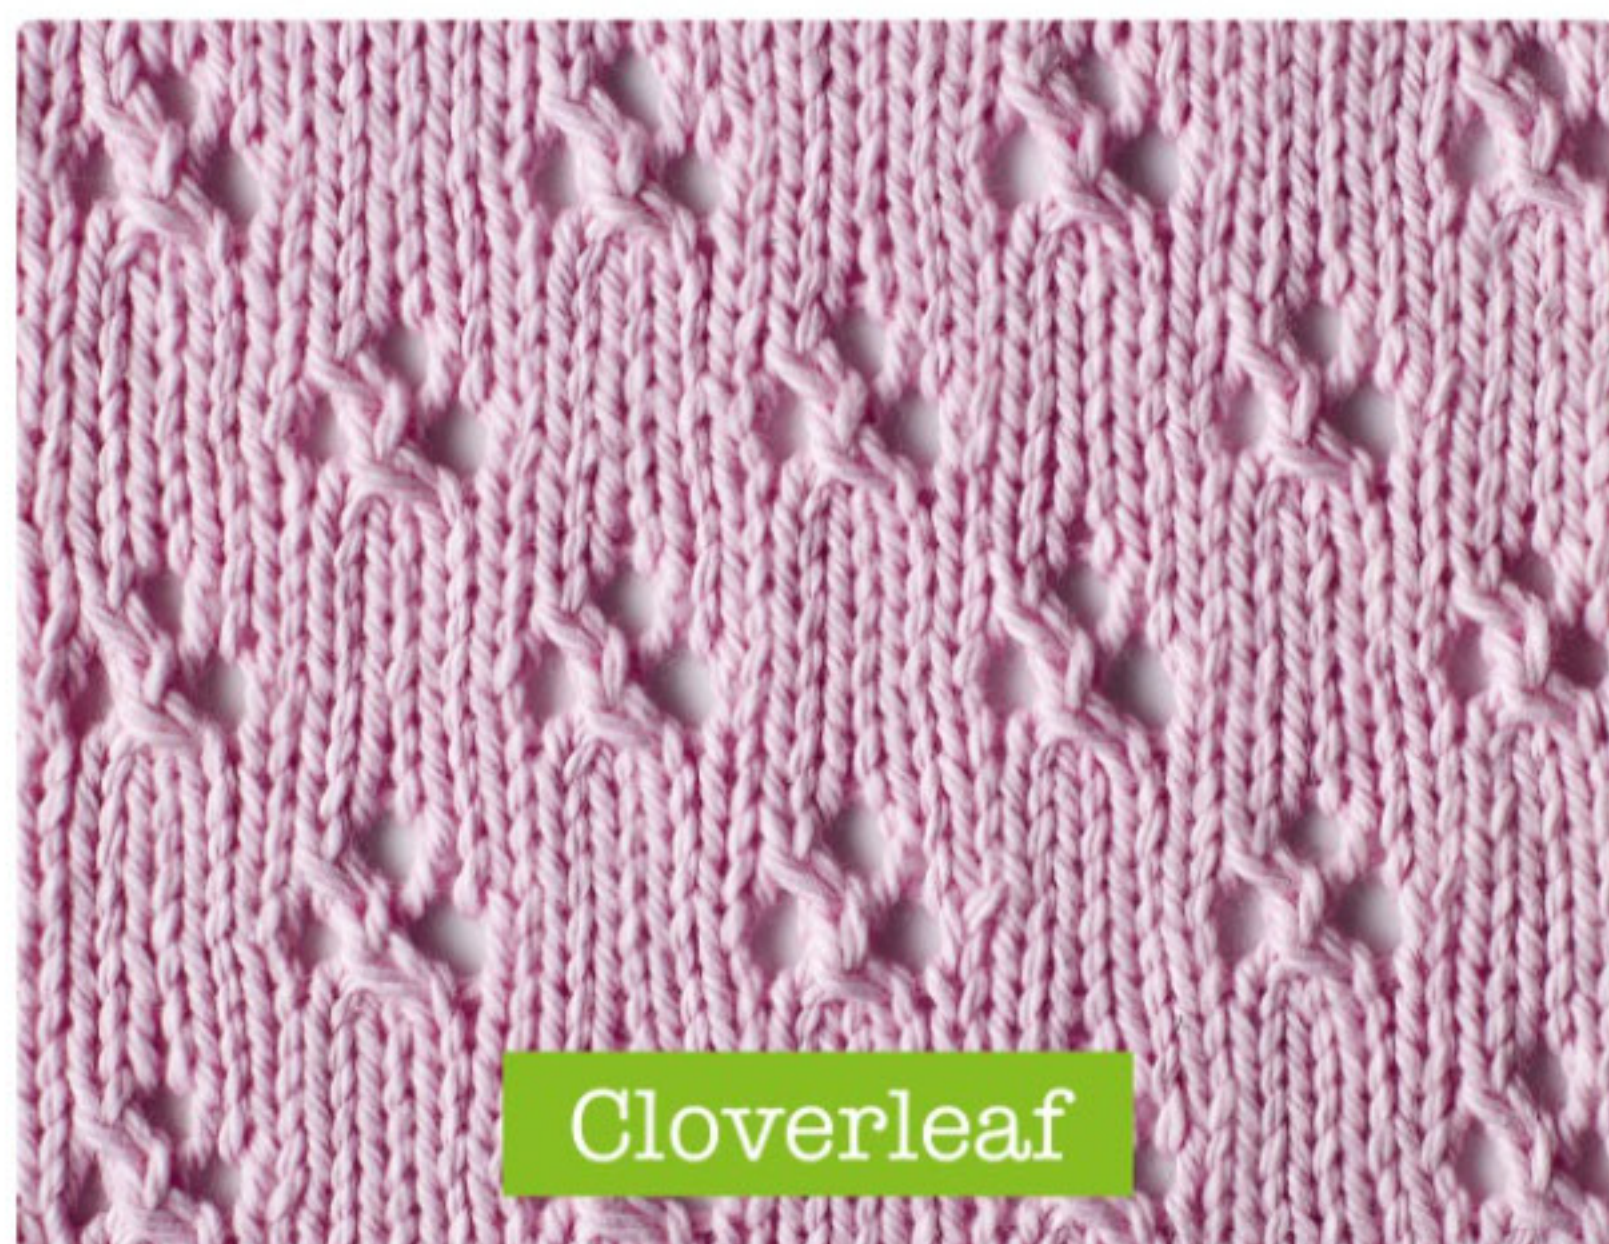

Ribbon eyelet

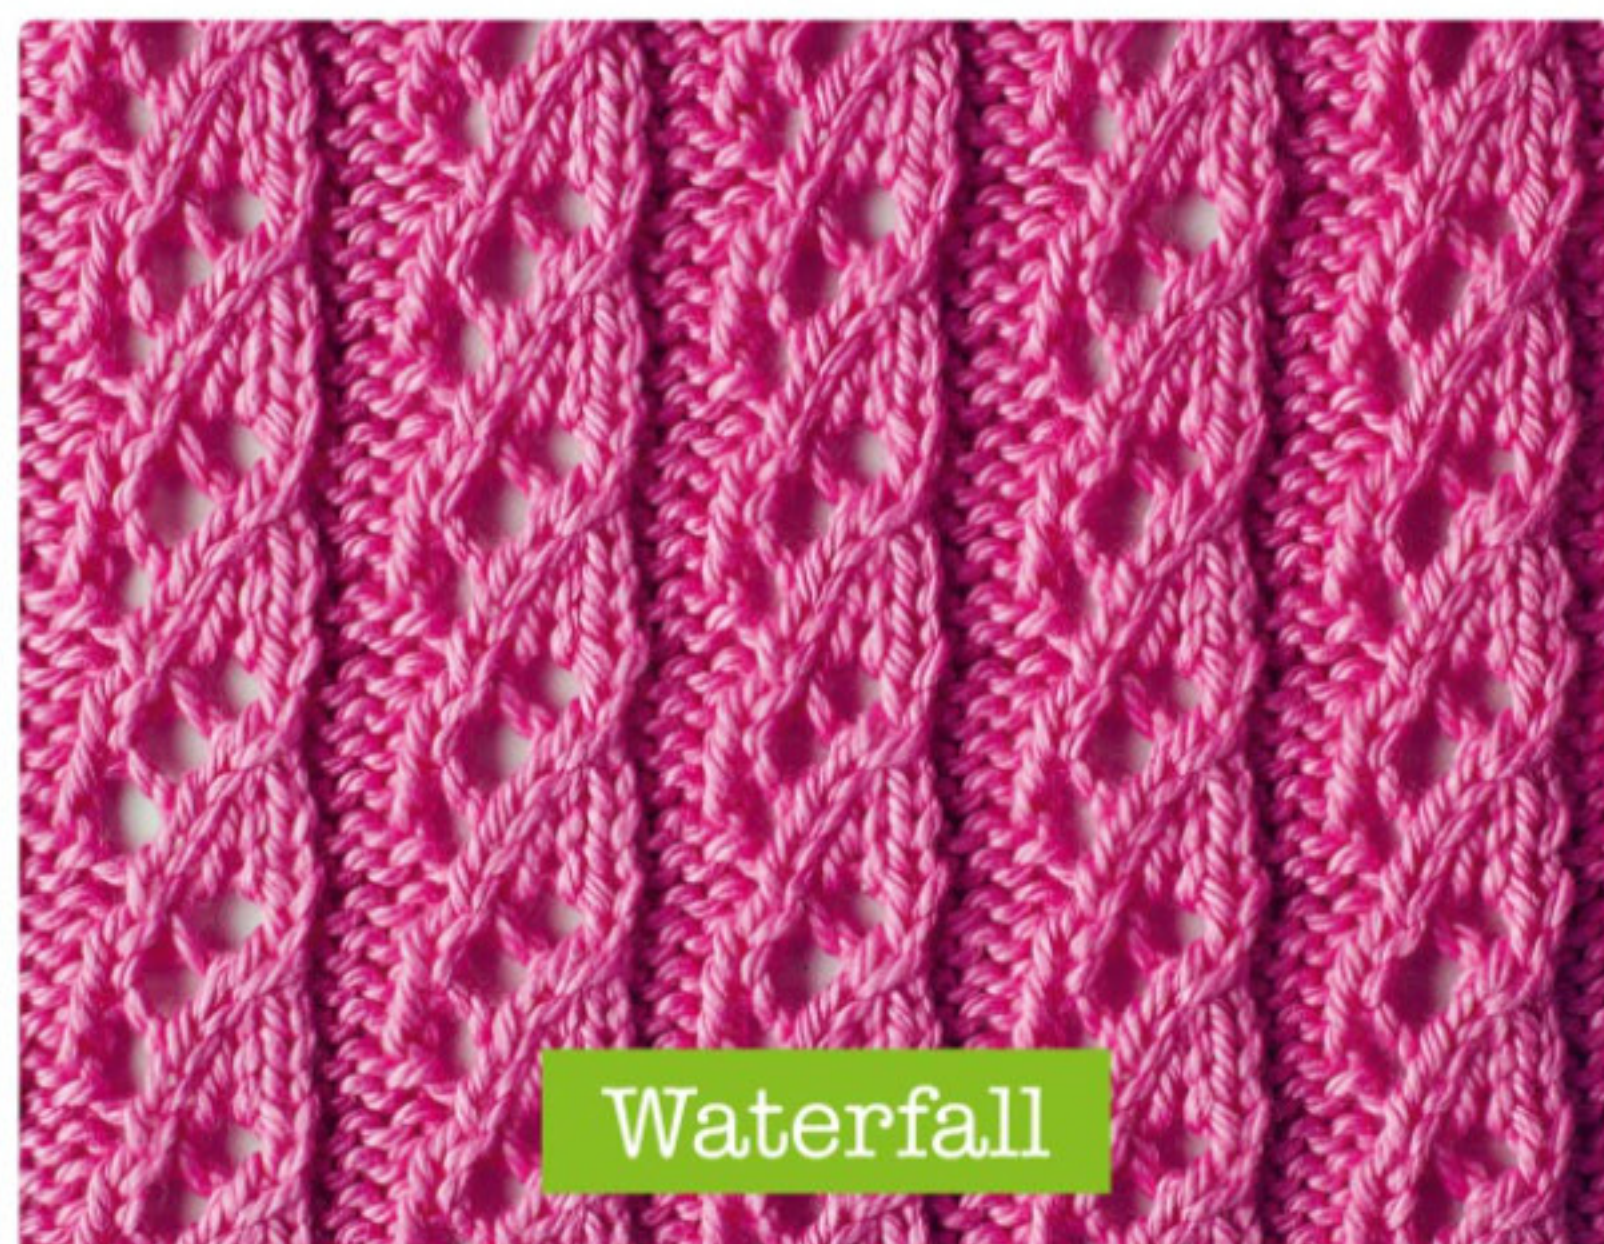

Leafy mesh

Ploughed acre

Cloverleaf

Waterfall

A yarn-over increase makes a hole in the fabric and when it's balanced by a decrease any number of lacy stitch patterns can be made. Here are a few you can achieve.

Yarn

King Cole Cottonsoft DK.

Note

Instructions in square brackets are worked as stated after 2nd bracket.

Abbreviations

K, knit; p, purl; st, stitch; tog, together; skpo, slip 1 stitch knitwise, k1, pass slipped st over; sk2po, slip 1 stitch knitwise, k2tog, pass slipped stitch over; yo, yarn forward and over needle to make a stitch.

Ribbon eyelet

This simple textured lacy stitch can be used as a repeat pattern as here, or a single band of the fourth to sixth rows can be slotted with ribbon.

Multiple of 2 sts plus 1.

1st row (right side): K.

2nd row: P.

3rd and 4th rows: K.

5th row: [K2tog, yo] to last st, k1.

6th row: K.

Repeat 1st to 6th rows.

Diagonals

A combination of made stitches and decreases is moved along one stitch on each right-side row to produce a simple, clear diagonal design.

Multiple of 5 sts plus 1.

1st and alternate rows (wrong side): P.

2nd row: [K3, k2tog, yo] to last st, k1.

4th row: [K2, k2tog, yo, k1] to last st, k1.

6th row: [K1, k2tog, yo, k2] to last st, k1.

8th row: [K2tog, yo, k3] to last st, k1.

10th row: K4, [k2tog, yo, k3] to last 2 sts, k2.

Repeat 1st to 10th rows.

Ploughed acre

The decreases that sit either side of the open increases are chosen so that they disappear into the stocking stitch fabric to make a very linear design.

Multiple of 7 sts plus 2.

1st row (wrong side): P.

2nd row: K2, [skpo, yo, k1, yo, k2tog, k2] to end.

Repeat 1st and 2nd rows.

Leafy mesh

Although it looks complex, this lacy stitch is actually just a four-row leaf pattern alternating to make an eight row repeat.

Multiple of 6 sts plus 1.

1st and alternate rows (wrong side): P.

2nd row: K1, [yo, skpo, k1, k2tog, yo, k1] to end.

4th row: K1, [yo, k1, sk2po, k1, yo, k1] to end.

6th row: K1, [k2tog, yo, k1, yo, skpo, k1] to end.

8th row: K2tog, * k1, [yo, k1] twice, sk2po; repeat from * to last 5 sts, k1, [yo, k1] twice, skpo.

Repeat 1st to 8th rows.

Waterfall

Except that stitches are made and lost on some different rows, altering the stitch count, this is a fairly simple but very effective stitch pattern.

Multiple of 6 sts plus 3.

1st row (wrong side): K3, [p3, k3] to end.

2nd row: P3, [k3, yo, p3] to end.

3rd row: K3, [p4, k3] to end.

4th row: P3, [k1, k2tog, yo, k1, p3] to end.

5th row: K3, [p2, p2tog, k3] to end.

6th row: P3, [k1, yo, k2tog, p3] to end.

Repeat 1st to 6th rows.

Cloverleaf

This very dainty spot pattern is made with groups of three yarn-over increases, the first two are held close together by a double decrease.

Multiple of 8 sts plus 7.

1st row (right side): K.

2nd and alternate rows: P.

3rd row: K2, yo, sk2po, yo, [k5, yo, sk2po, yo] to last 2 sts, k2.

5th row: K3, yo, skpo, [k6, yo, skpo] to last 2 sts, k2.

7th row: K.

9th row: K6, [yo, sk2po, yo, k5] to last st, k1.

11th row: K7, [yo, skpo, k6] to end.

12th row: P.

Repeat 1st to 12th rows.

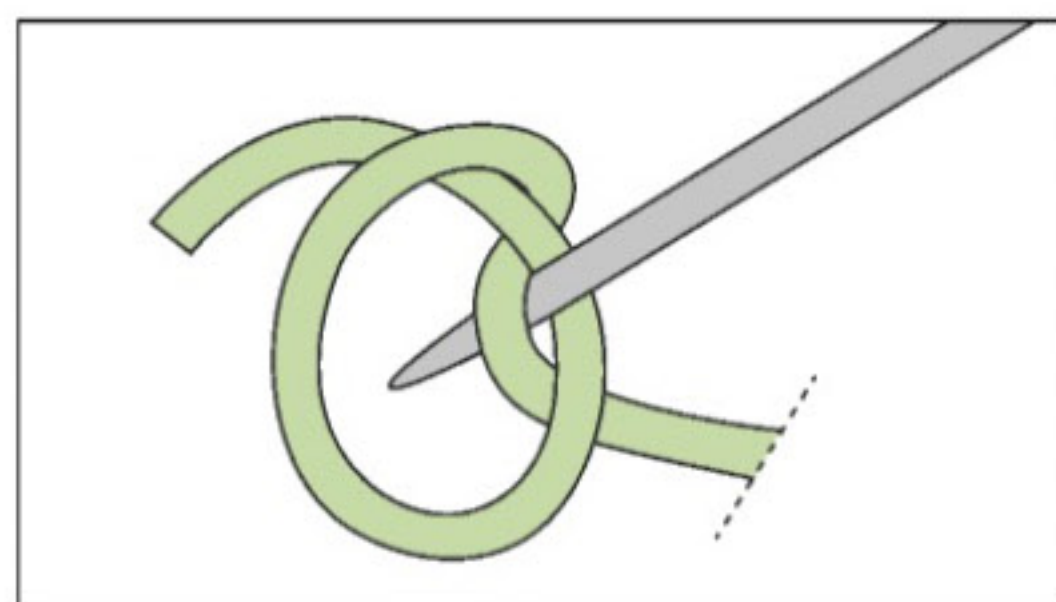

Knitting Class

All the steps to get you started are explained here

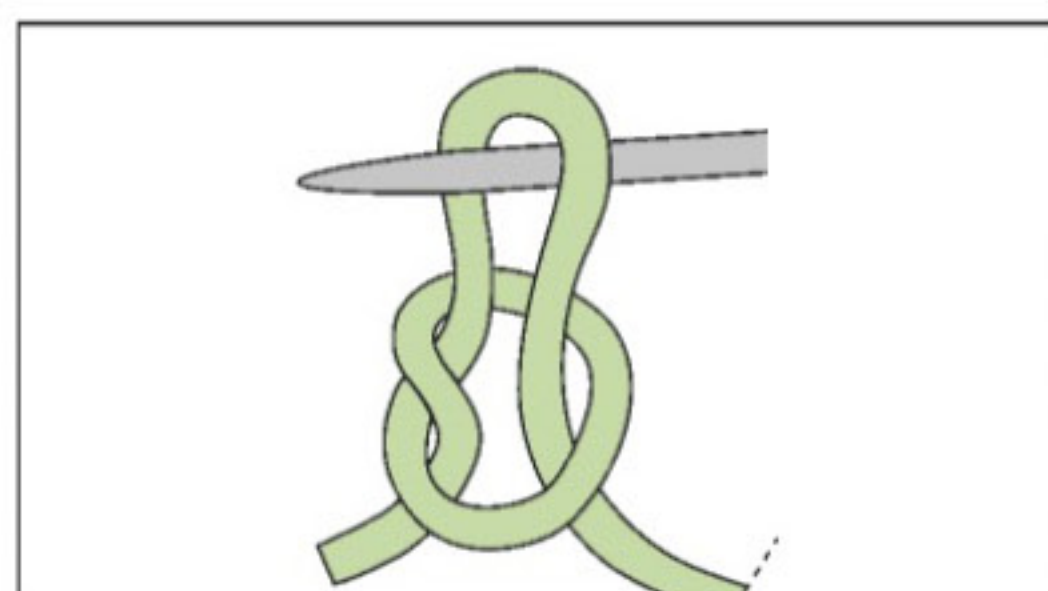

Choose the cast-on method that suits you best

The increases and decreases will extend your knitting vocabulary.

Slip knot

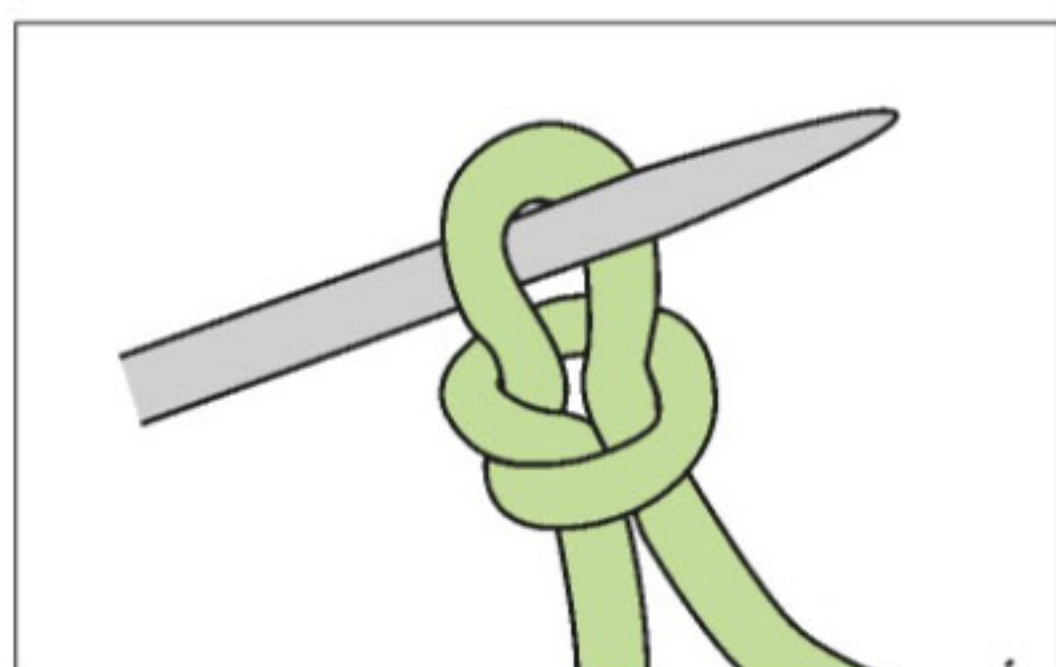

1 Make a slip knot by looping the yarn, ball end on top. Dip the needle into the loop, catch the ball end and pull it through the loop.

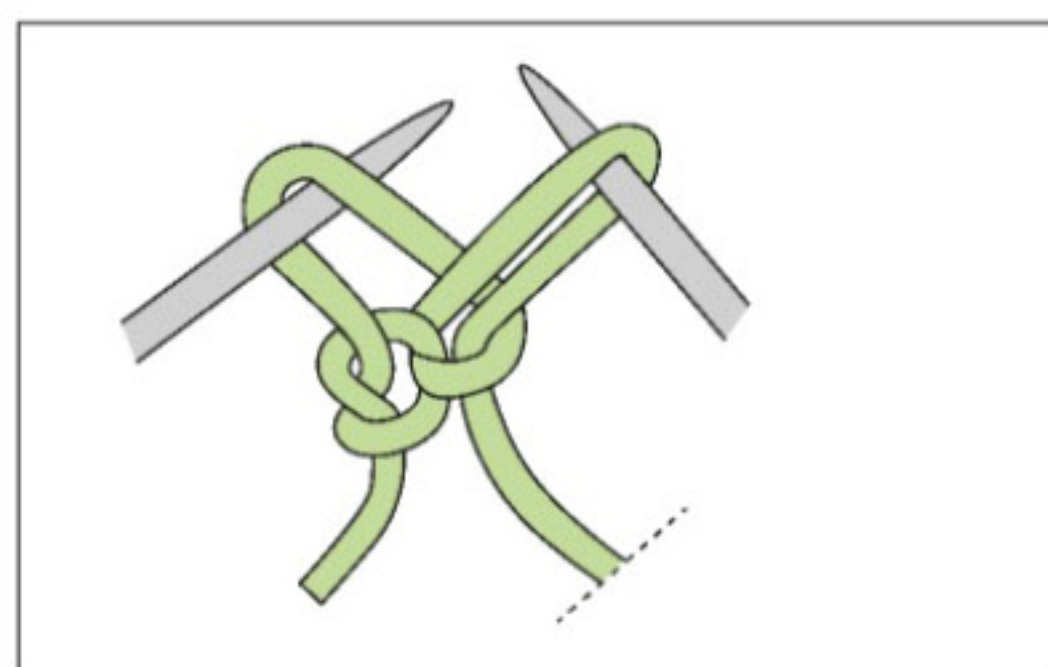

2 Pull both yarn ends to tighten the knot, then pull the ball end to bring the knot up to the needle to make the first stitch.

Casting on by knitting on

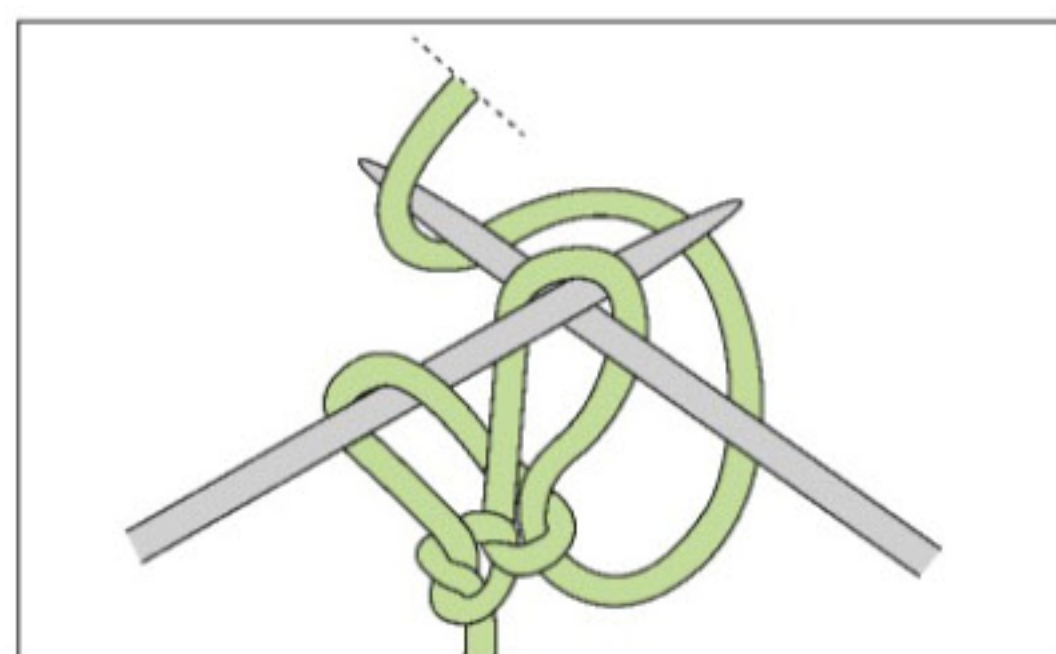

This is a method which, using two needles, gives a soft, slightly flimsy edge that can be gathered or used for hems.

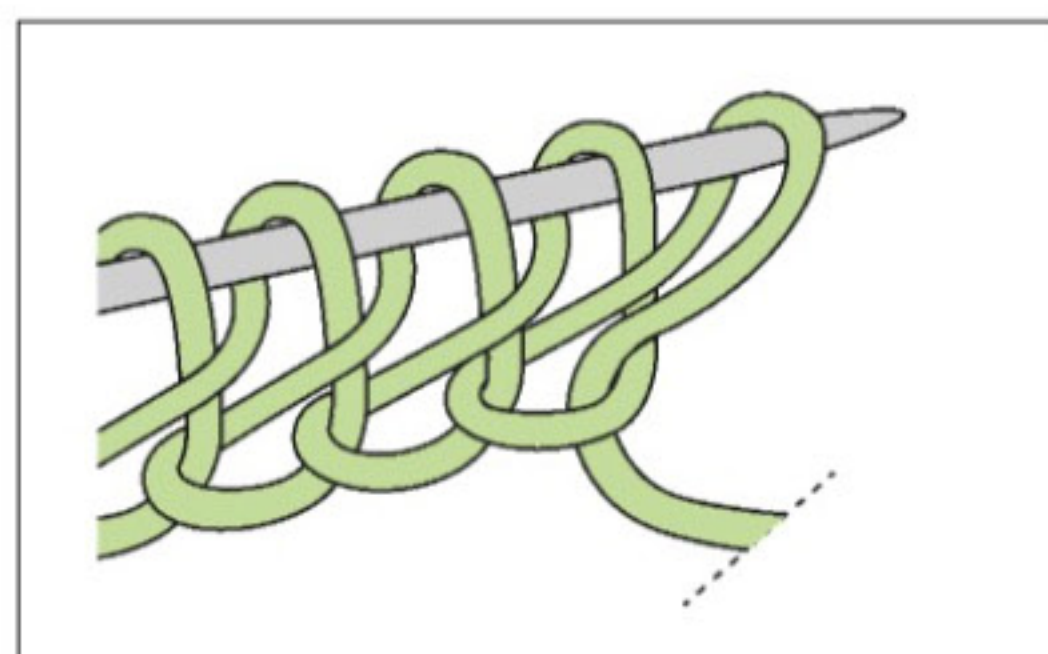

1 Make a slip knot, then hold the needle in your left hand.

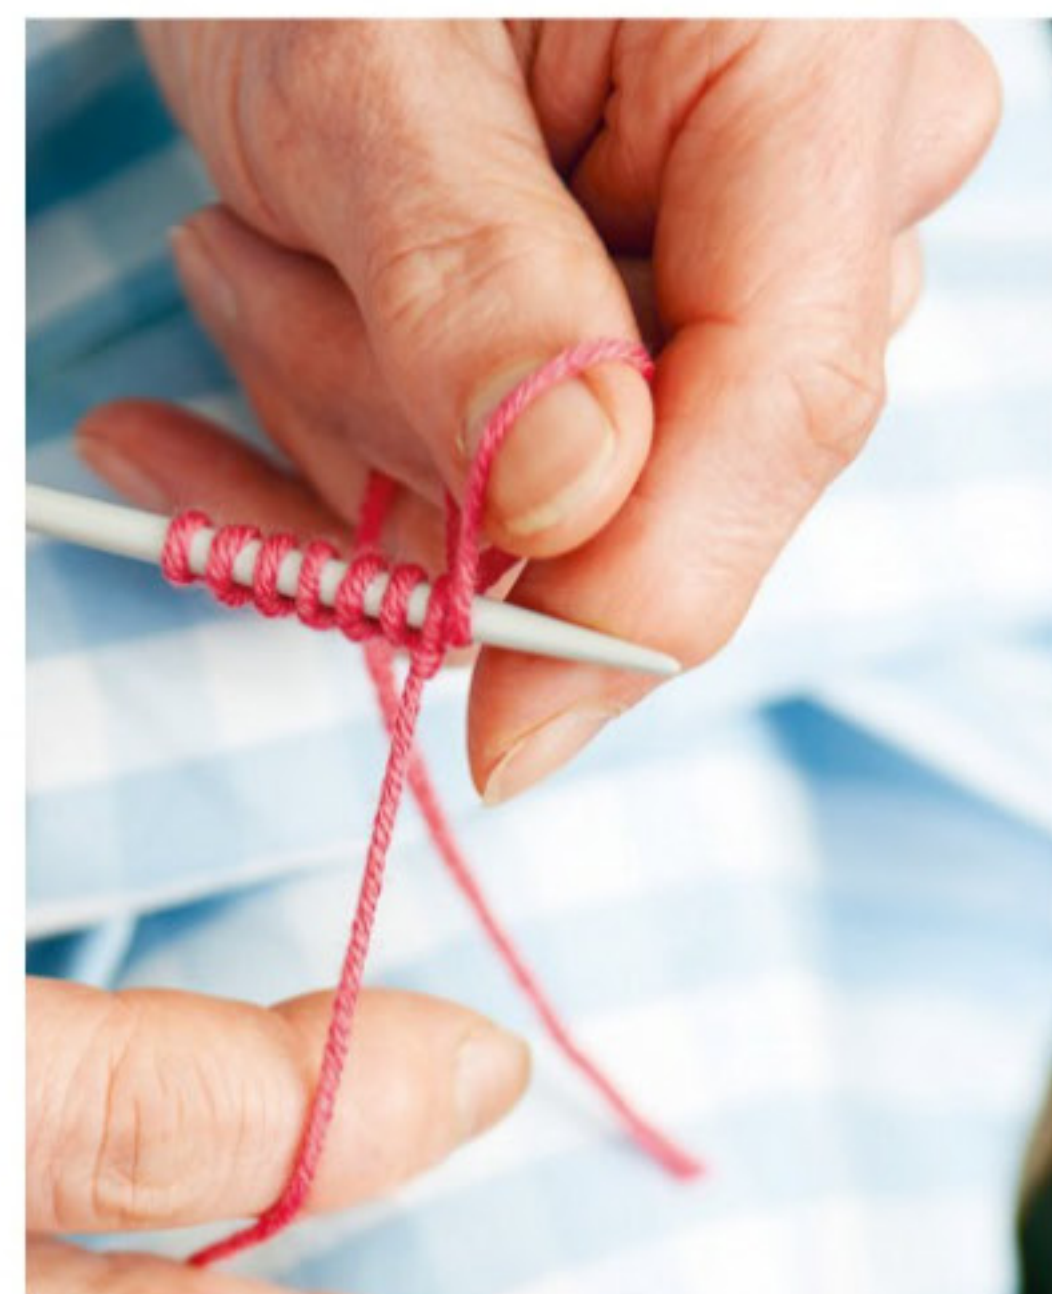

2 Knit one without slipping the stitch off.

3 Slip the new stitch on to the left-hand needle making sure the yarn is in position ready to knit the next stitch.

4 Continue making stitches as steps 2 and 3 until you have the number of stitches you need.

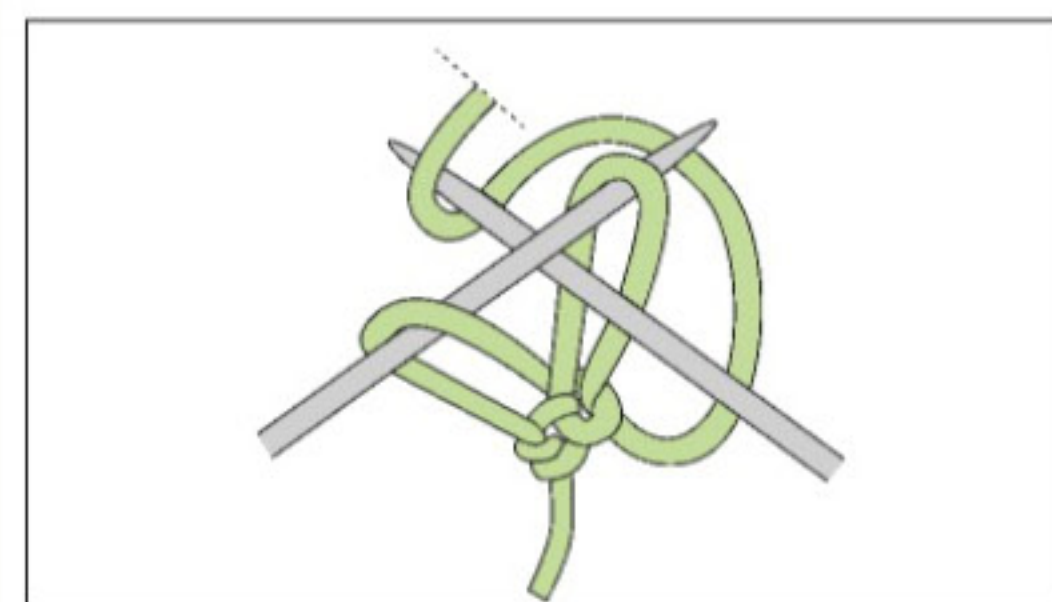

Cable cast on

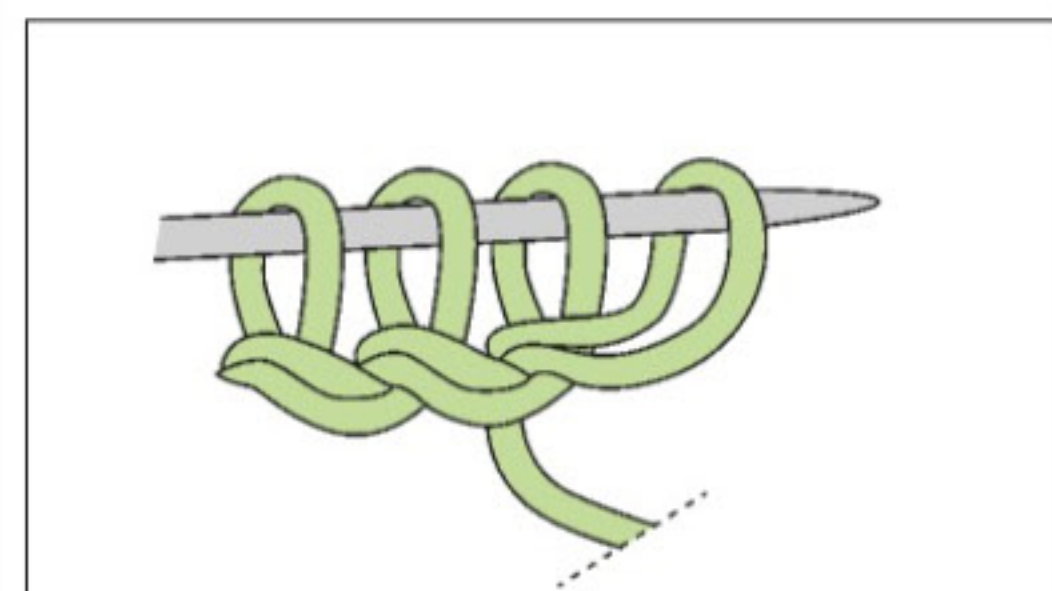

This is a cable method which is similar to the knitting-on method but gives a substantial edge with a rope-like appearance.

1 Make a slip knot, then hold the needle in your left hand, as step 1 shown left.

2 Knit one without slipping the stitch off, as step 2 shown left, and slip the new stitch on to the left-hand needle.

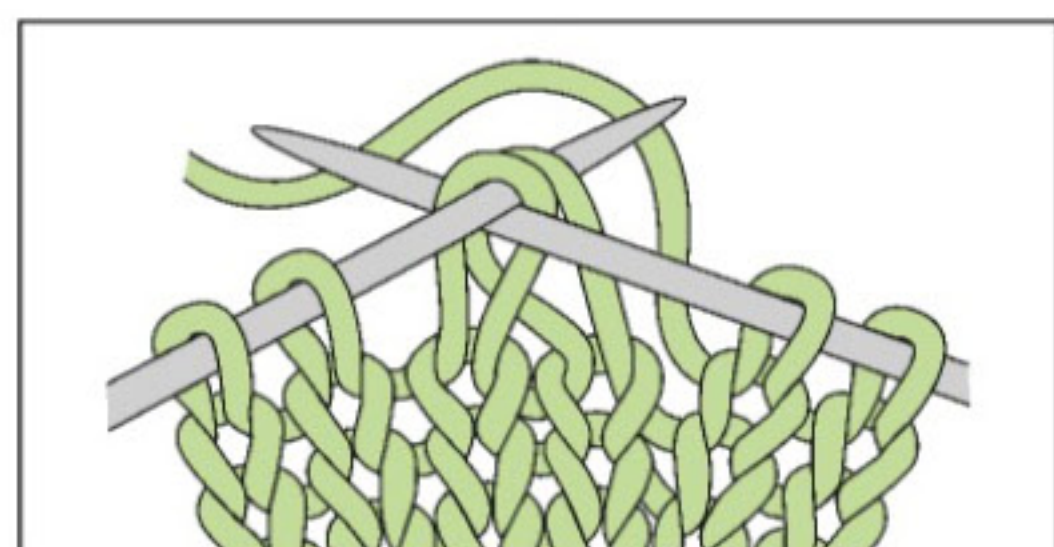

3 Insert the right-hand needle BETWEEN the last 2 stitches just made, yarn round needle and pull the loop through, thus making new stitch. Slip the new stitch onto left-needle.

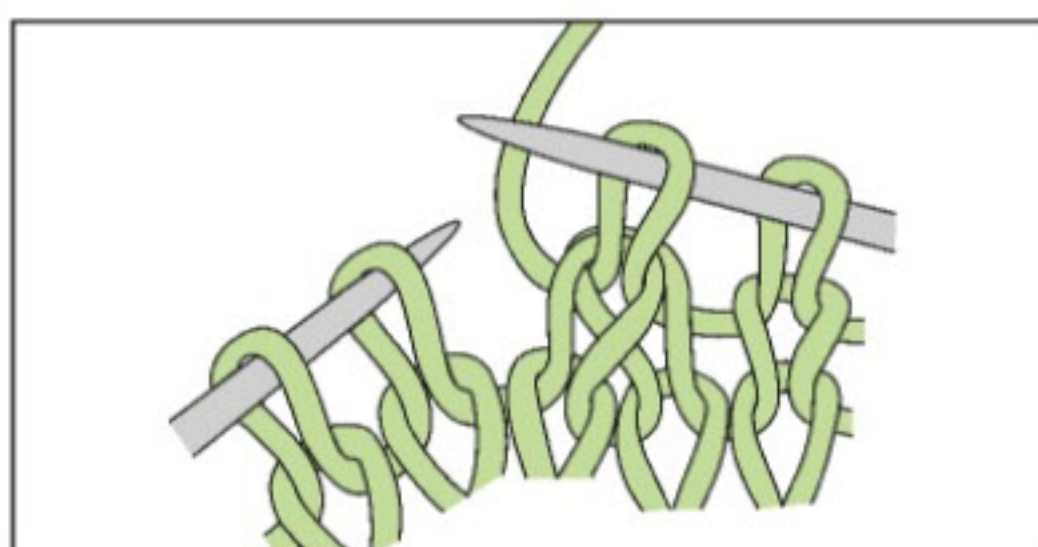

4 Continue making stitches as steps 3 above, until you have the number of stitches you need.

Single decrease (k2tog)

Losing a stitch by knitting two together (k2tog) gives a decrease that slants to the right.

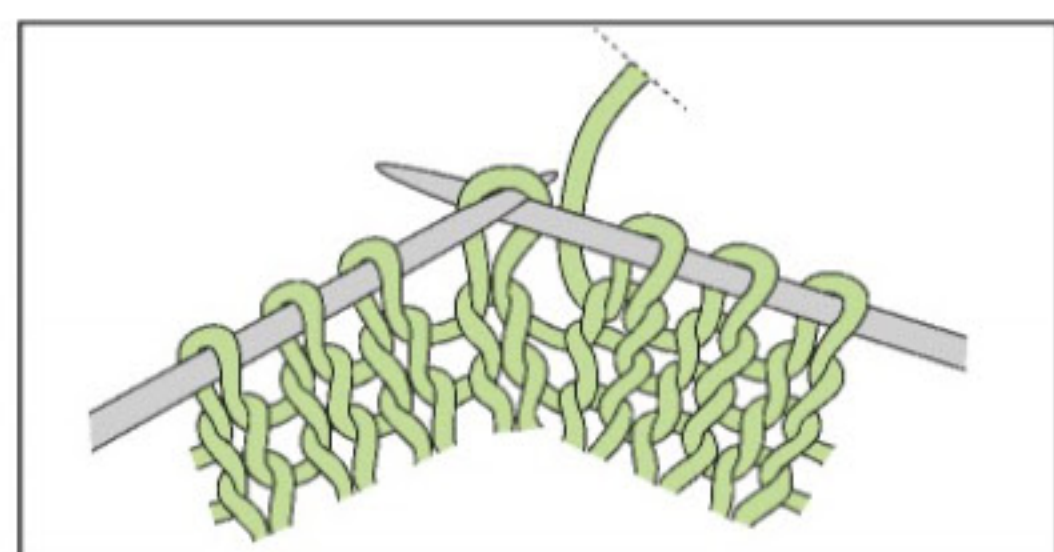

1 Insert the needle in the next two stitches knitwise (that is, through the front of the loops).

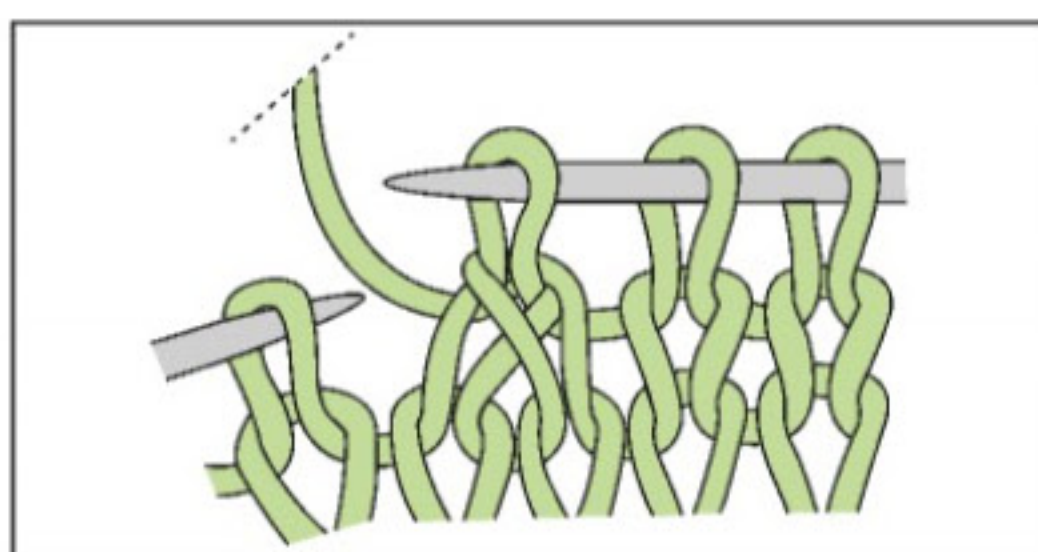

2 Yarn round needle, pull through both stitches and slip these stitches off together. The resulting decrease has the top stitch slanting to the right.

Single decrease (skpo)

Losing a stitch by slipping one stitch over the next (skpo) gives a decrease that slants to the left.

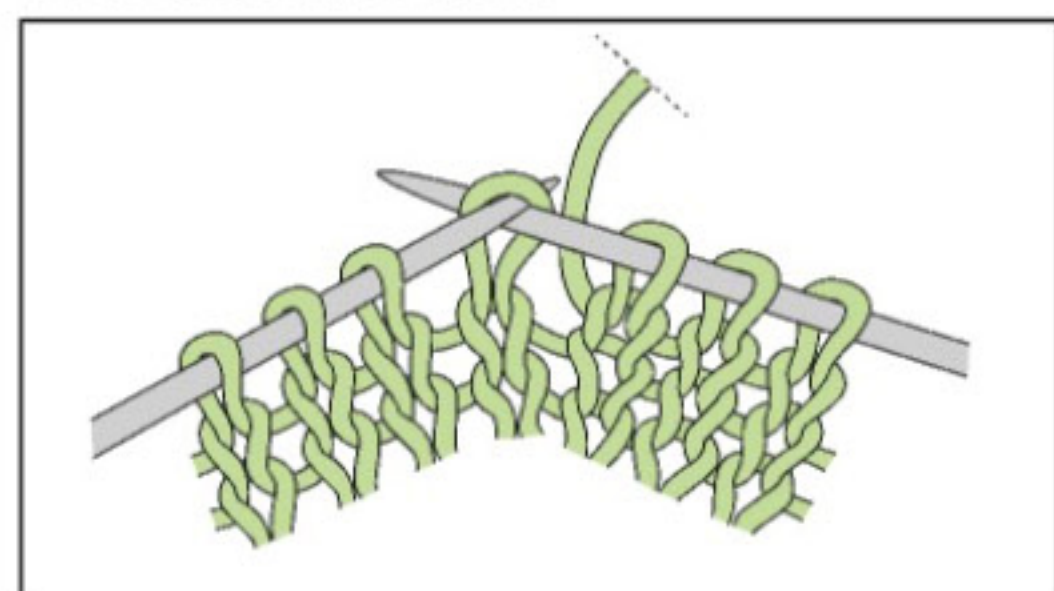

1 Insert the needle in the next stitch knitwise (through the front of the loop) to slip it on to the right-hand needle.

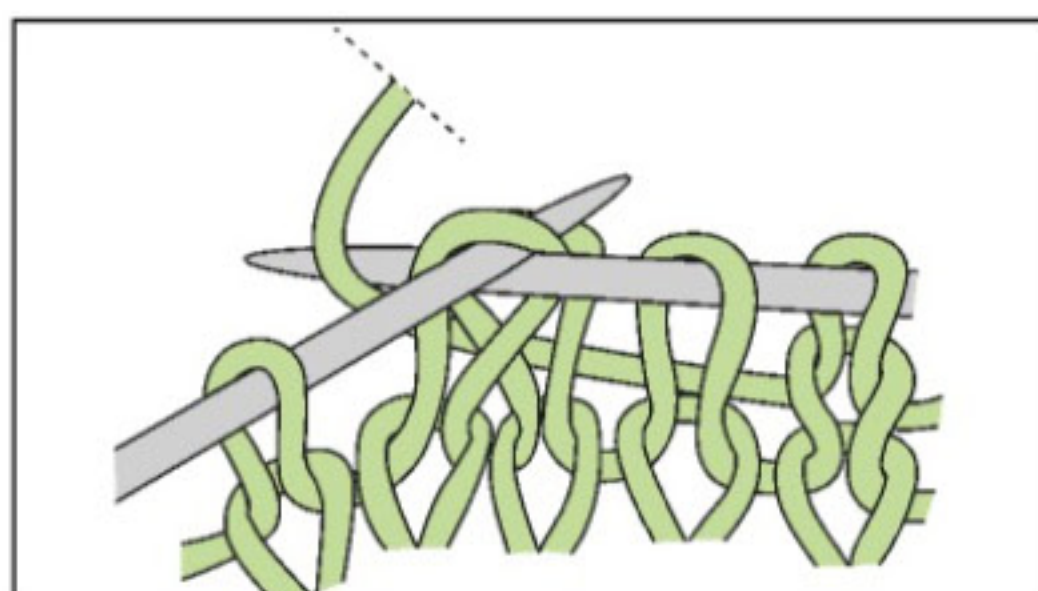

2 Knit the next stitch, then use the left-hand needle to lift the slipped stitch over the knitted one. The resulting decrease has the top stitch slanting to the left.

Double decrease (sk2po)

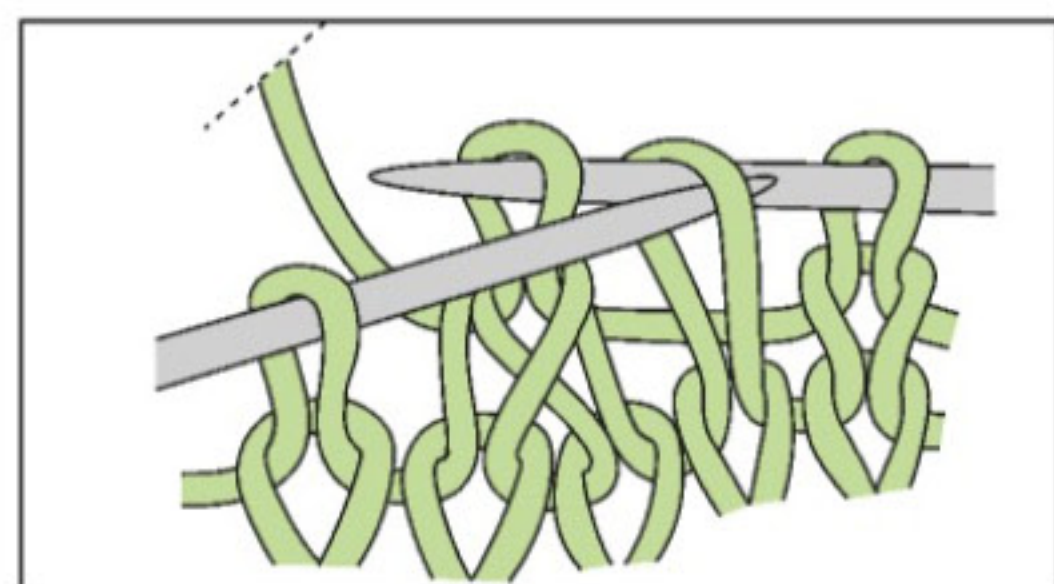

The most usual way to lose two stitches is to slip one, knit the next two together then pass the slipped stitch over (sk2po). Don't confuse it with skpo, which only decreases one stitch.

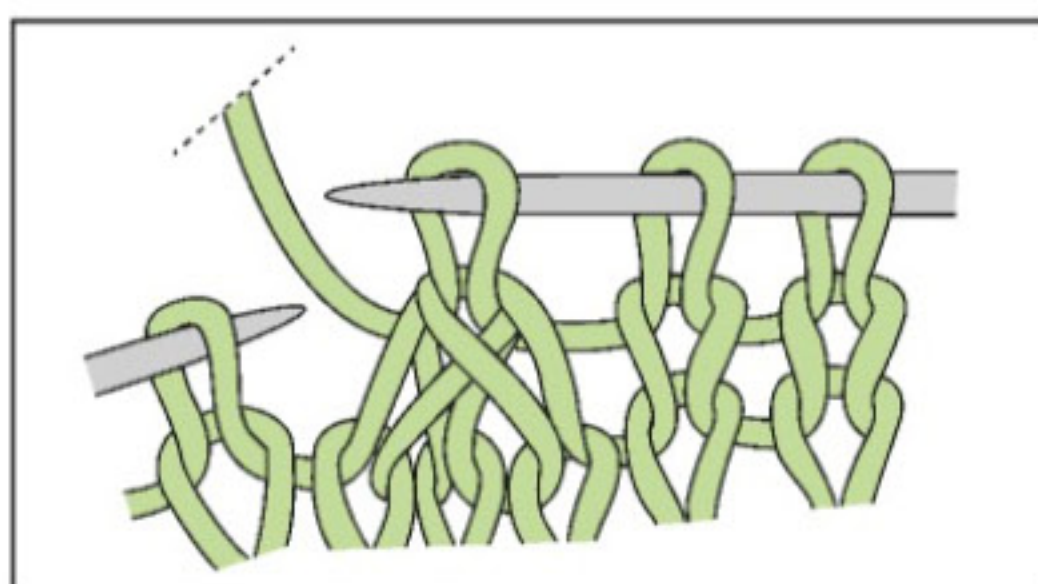

1 Slip one stitch knitwise, as for skpo above.

2 Take the yarn behind to knit two together.

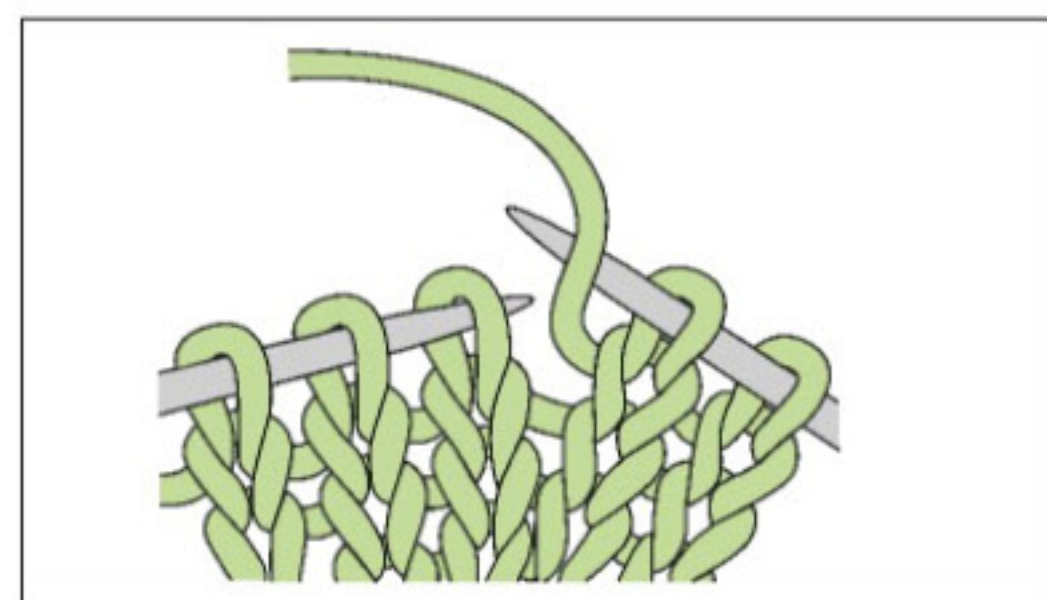

3 Use the left-hand needle to lift the slipped stitch over the two stitches knitted together.

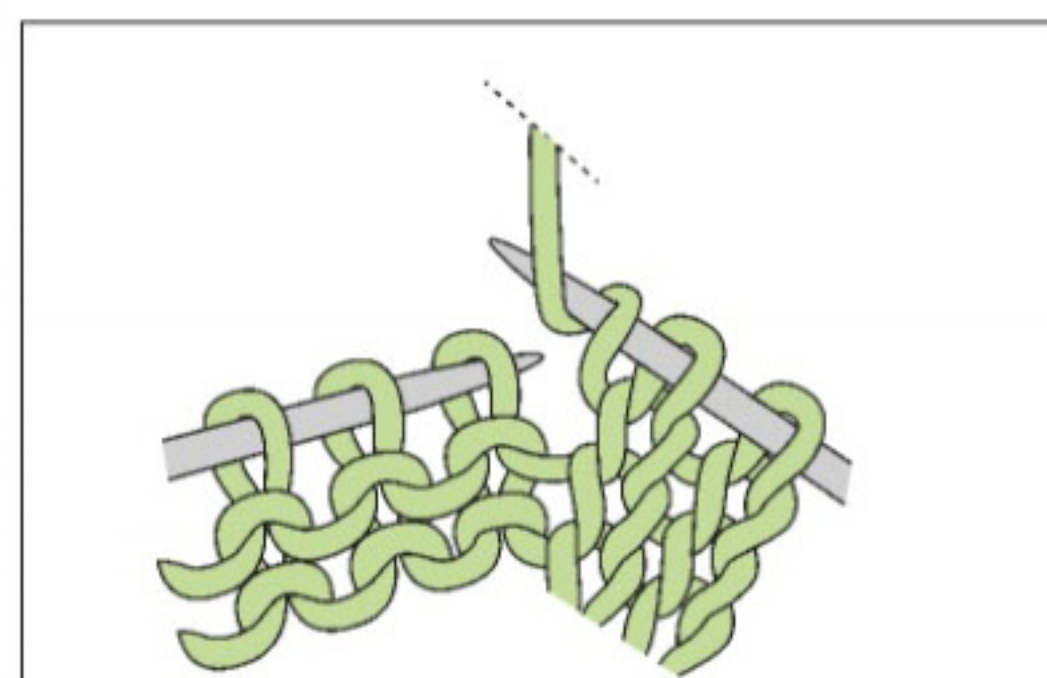

4 The resulting double decrease has the top stitch slanting to the left.

Open increases

Taking the yarn over the needle between stitches (yo) adds a stitch and leaves a hole. The method of doing this depends on the stitches either side. In many stitch patterns this increase is balanced by a decrease, but the principle is the same.

1 Between knit stitches bring the yarn forward, then over the needle to be at the back ready to make the next stitch.

2 Between knit and purl stitches bring the yarn forward and around the needle to be at the front ready to make the next stitch.

3 Between purl and knit stitches simply take the yarn over the needle from front to back ready to make the next stitch.

4 Between purl and purl the yarn needs to go over and around the needle to be at the front ready to make the next stitch.

Heads Up

Use your new stitch pattern skills to make a neat little hat

As this little hat is made from the top using only increases, it can be adapted to any size and can be worn with the edge rolled up or pulled down

Measurements

To fit an average head.

Materials

1 x 100g (210m) ball of King Cole Cottonsoft DK (100% cotton) in Rose (712). Pair of 4mm (No. 8) knitting needles; knitter's sewing needle.

You can buy the yarn online from womansweeklyshop.co.uk. For other yarn stockists, call King Cole on 01535 650230.

Tension

22 stitches and 28 rows, to 10 x 10cm, over stocking stitch, using 4mm needles.

Abbreviations

K, knit; p, purl; st stitch; yo, yarn forward and over needle to make a stitch.

Note

Instructions in square brackets are worked as stated after 2nd bracket.

Hat

With 4mm needles, cast on 8 sts by the knitting-on method (see page 51).

1st row: K1, [yo, k1] 7 times – 15 sts.

2nd and alternate rows: P.

3rd row: K1, [yo, k2] 7 times – 22 sts.

5th row: K1, [yo, k3] 7 times – 29 sts.

7th row: K1, [yo, k4] 7 times – 36 sts.

9th row: K1, [yo, k5] 7 times – 43 sts.

11th row: K1, [yo, k6] 7 times – 50 sts.

Continue to increase in this way until k1,

[yo, k15] 7 times has been completed – 113 sts.

Beginning with a p row, continue in stocking stitch for 20 rows, or required depth, so ending with a k row.

K 2 rows. Cast off loosely knitwise.

Lightly gather the cast-on stitches, then, taking in half a stitch from each edge, join the back seam, reversing it for the last few rows if the hat is to be worn with the brim rolled up.

OPEN STITCHES

This familiar style of crochet has many names. It's probably best known as granny squares and consists of groupings of three treble stitches worked in rounds.

Yarn

King Cole Merino Blend DK.

Abbreviations

Ch, chain; chsp, chain space; dc, double crochet; slst, slip stitch; st, stitch; tr, treble.

Note

Instructions in square brackets are worked as stated after 2nd bracket.

Granny variation

This is similar to the granny square used for the phone cosy on page 59, except that it is more open and because there is only one colour change there aren't so many ends to fasten off.

Crochet Class

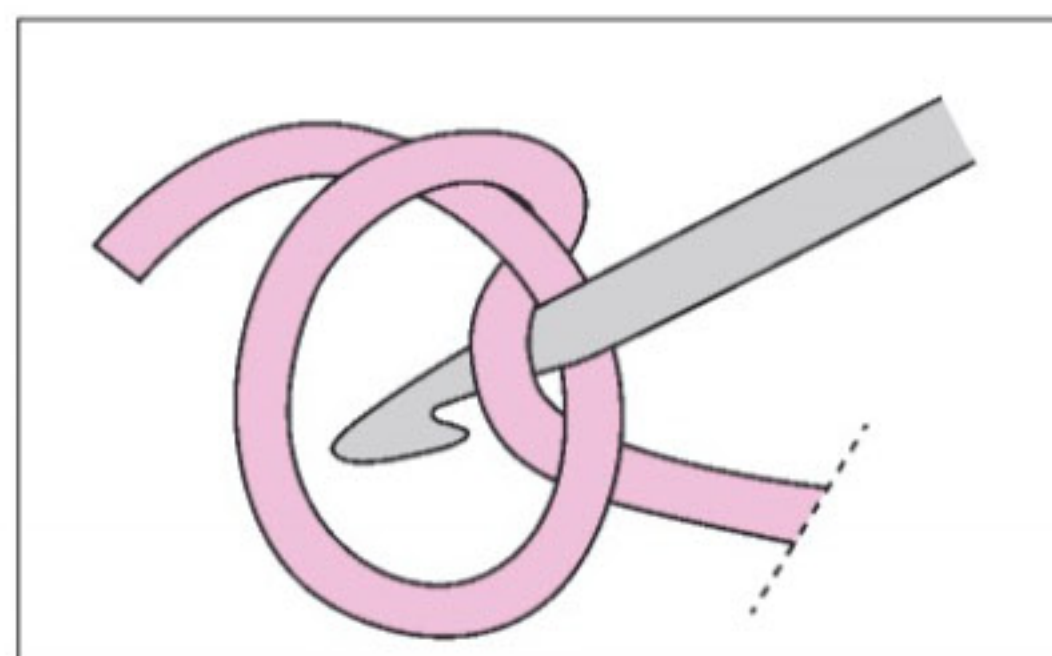

All the steps to get you started are explained here

Crochet in the round

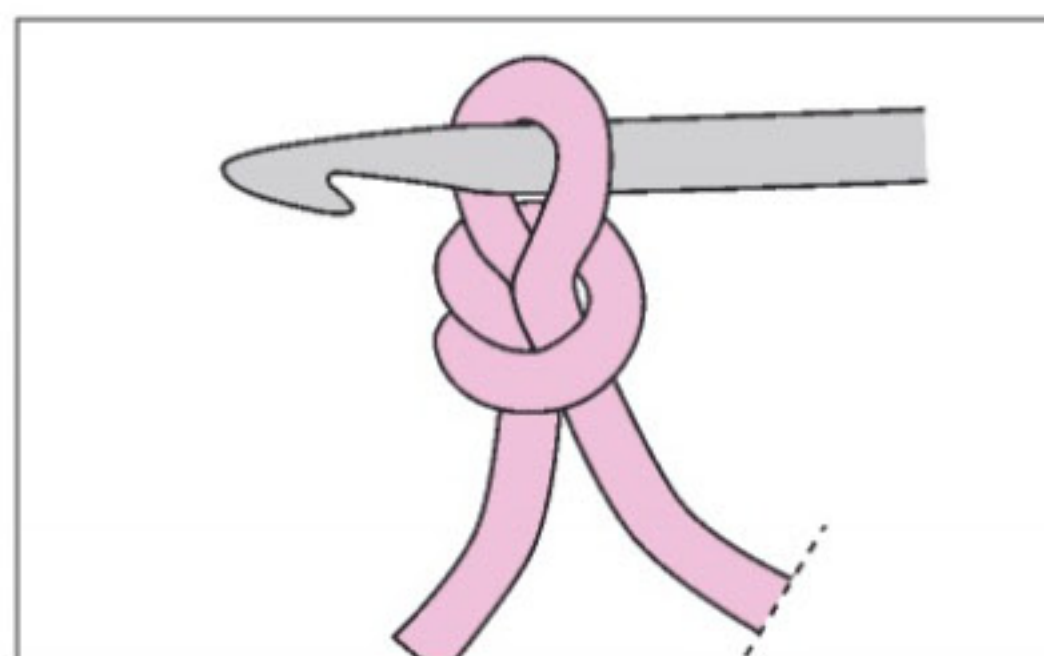

This is slightly different from working in rows, but just as easy. The stitches are the same and the right side is always towards you unless otherwise stated.

Slip knot

The slip knot is the most usual way to put the first loop on the hook.

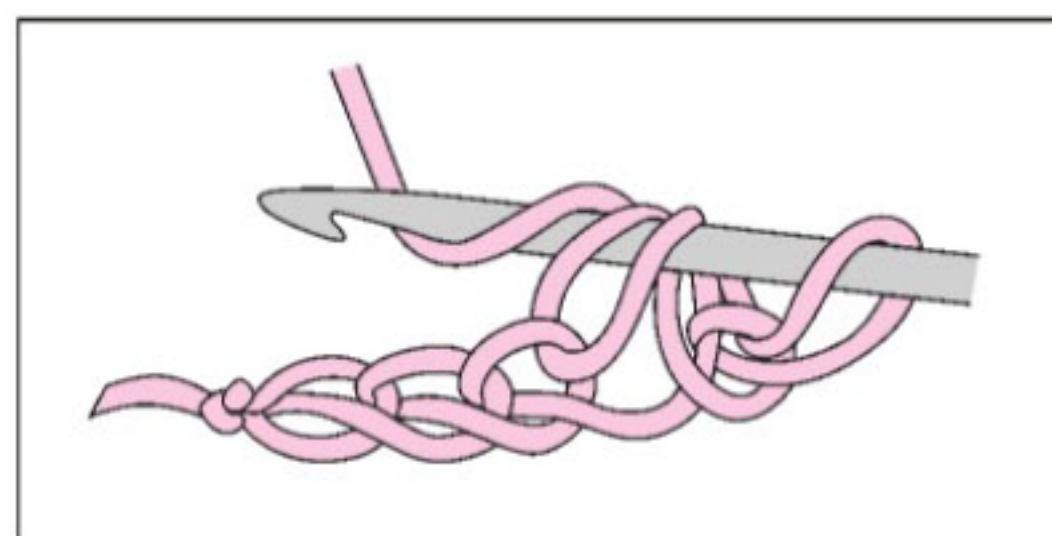

1 Loop the yarn, ball end on top, and dip the hook into the loop to catch the ball end and pull it through.

2 Pull both ends to tighten the knot, then pull the ball end to bring the knot up to the hook.

Slip stitch

This is quite unrelated to the slip knot. It's a stitch with no height and is a useful means of joining, moving from one stitch to another.

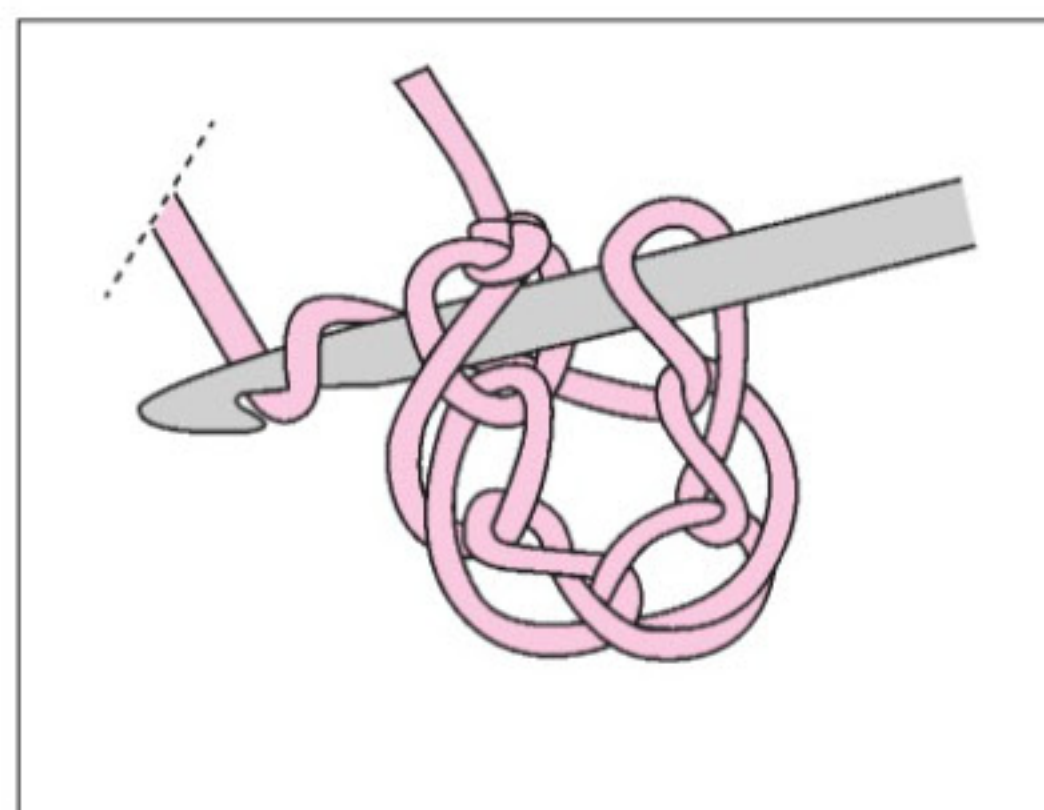

To make a slip stitch into a length of chain insert the hook under two strands in the second chain from the hook. Yarn round hook and pull it through both the chain and the loop on the hook.

Chain

Chain usually forms the starting point for rounds as well as rows.

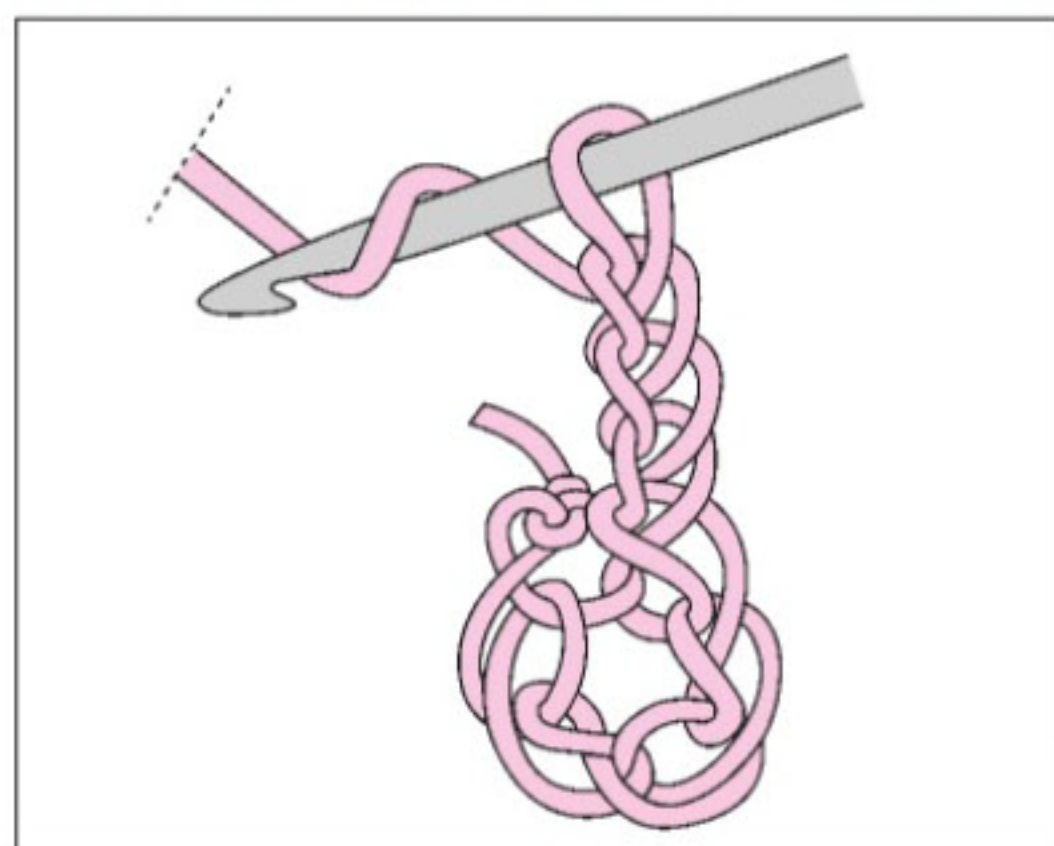

Chain ring

After making a slip knot, * yarn round hook and pull it through the loop on the hook; repeat from * until you have the required number of chain. Make this into a ring with a slip stitch. Simply curve the chain, loop still on the hook, until the hook can be inserted under two strands of the furthest chain from the hook. Yarn round the hook and pull it through the chain and the loop on the hook.

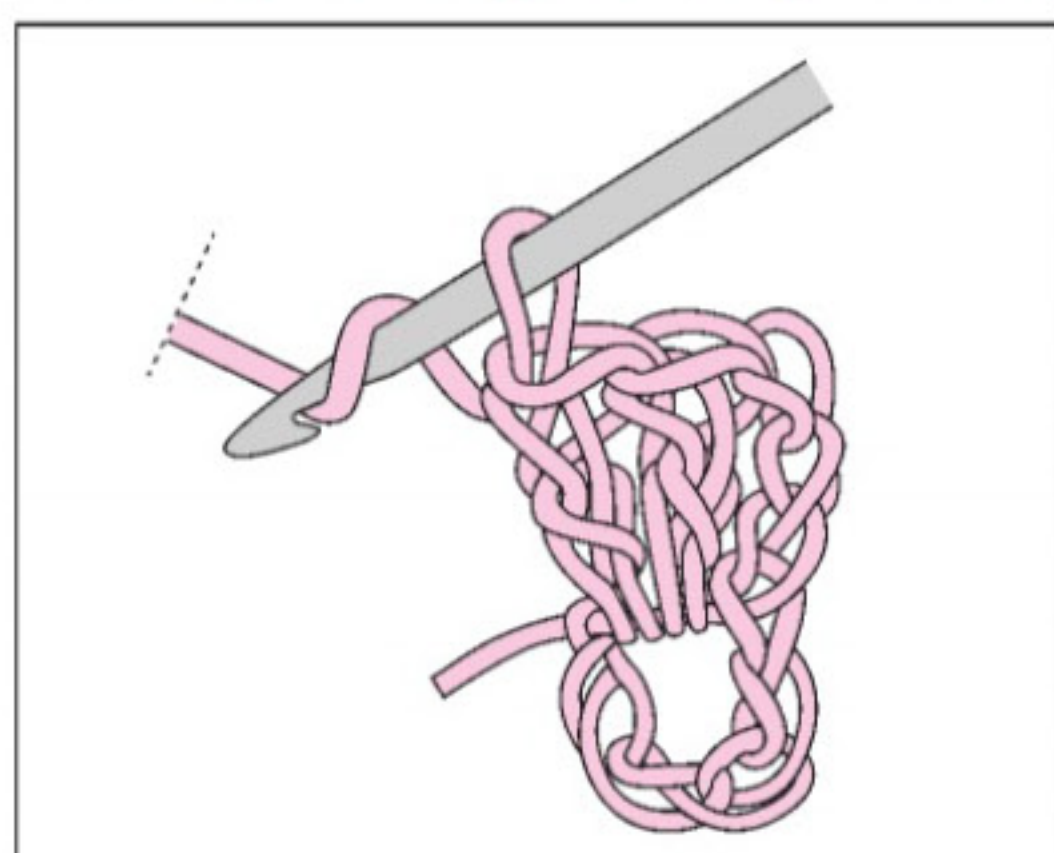

Photos: Nicky Dowey. Diagrams: Winnie Ong

The first stitch of the round

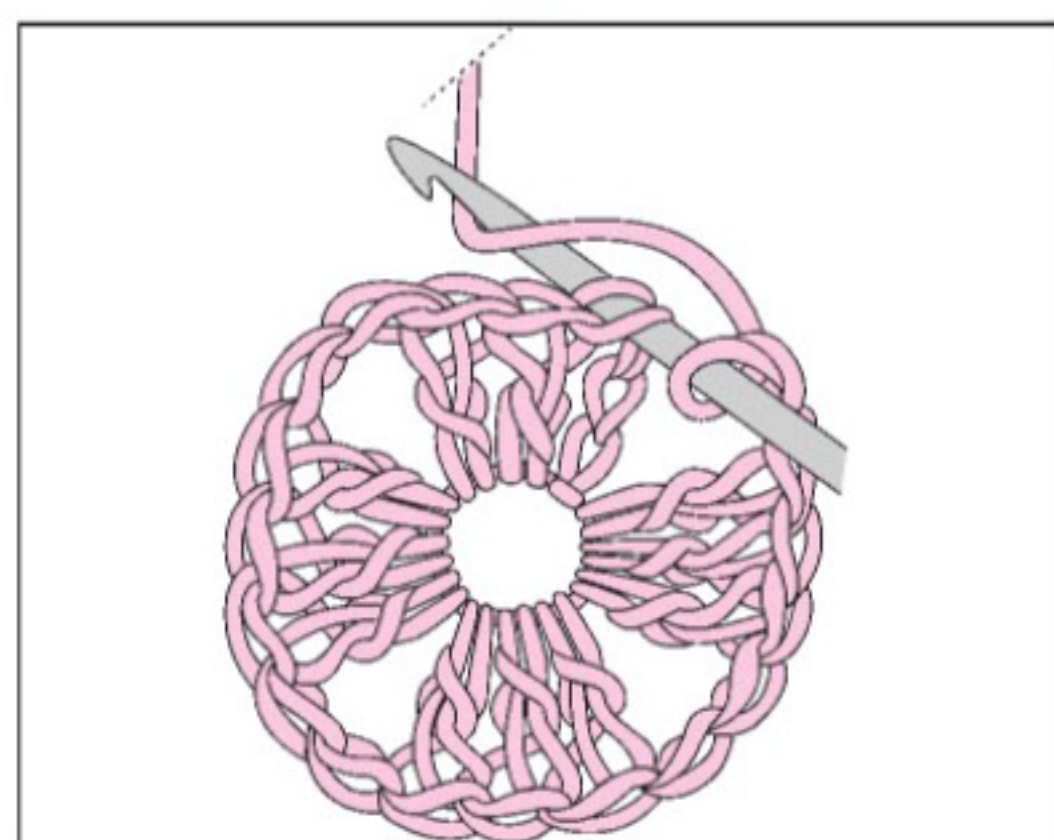

As at the beginning of a row, chain must be made to bring the hook up to the height needed for the following stitches. The chain counts as the first stitch. In this case there are three chain to count as one treble and the yarn is round the hook ready to make the first treble.

Enclosing the yarn end

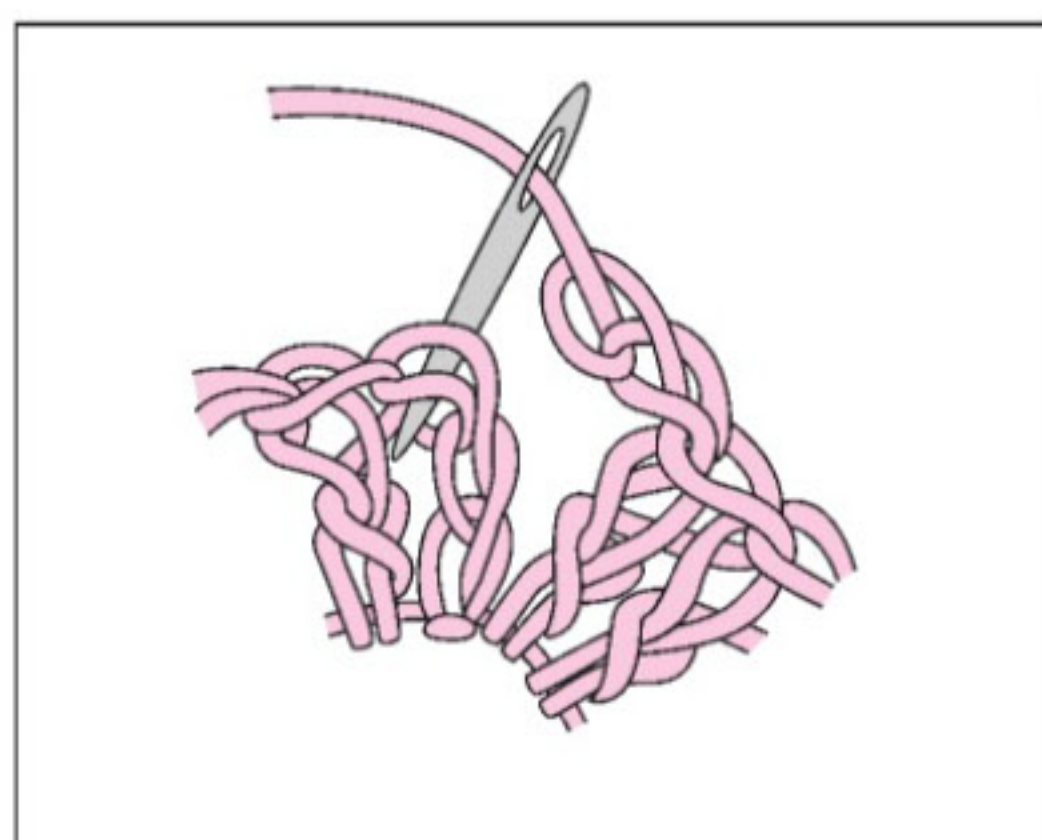

Working from right to left and making the stitches around the chain and not into the chain stitches, hold the yarn end behind and work over this as well. This will pad the ring and make one end less to darn in afterwards.

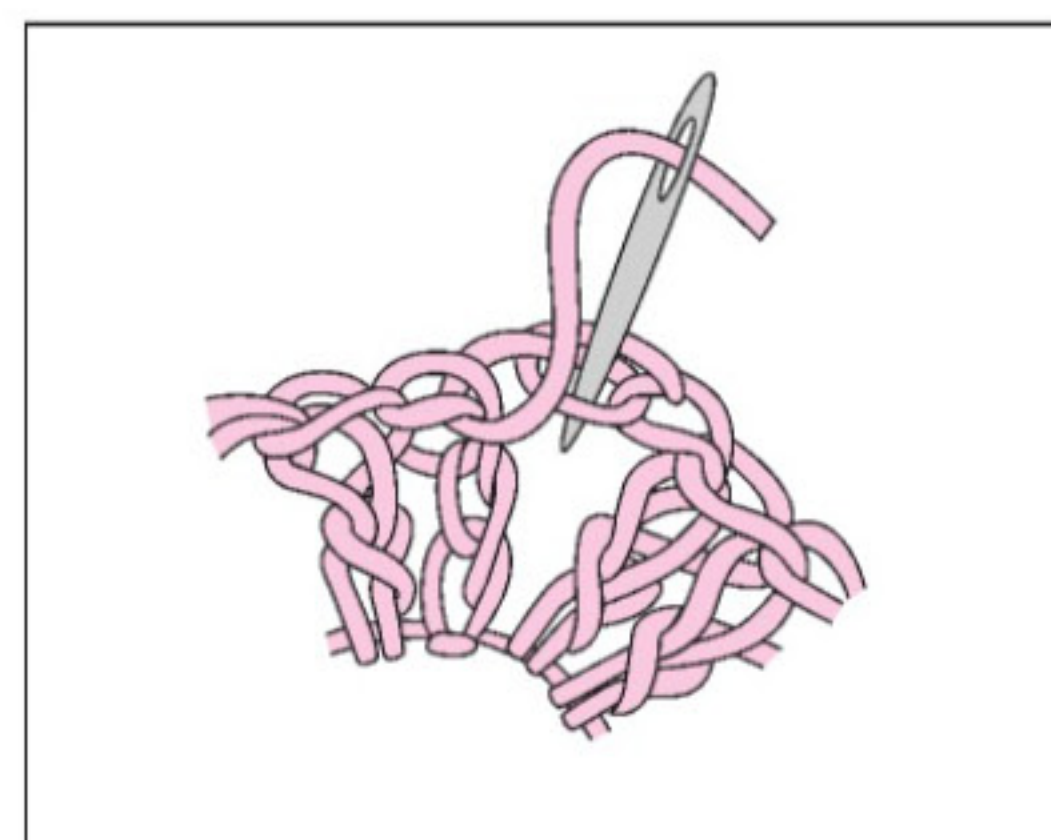

Fastening off

At the end of the round make a slip stitch in the top of the three chain that formed the first stitch. Then take the yarn round the hook and pull it through for a firm fasten off.

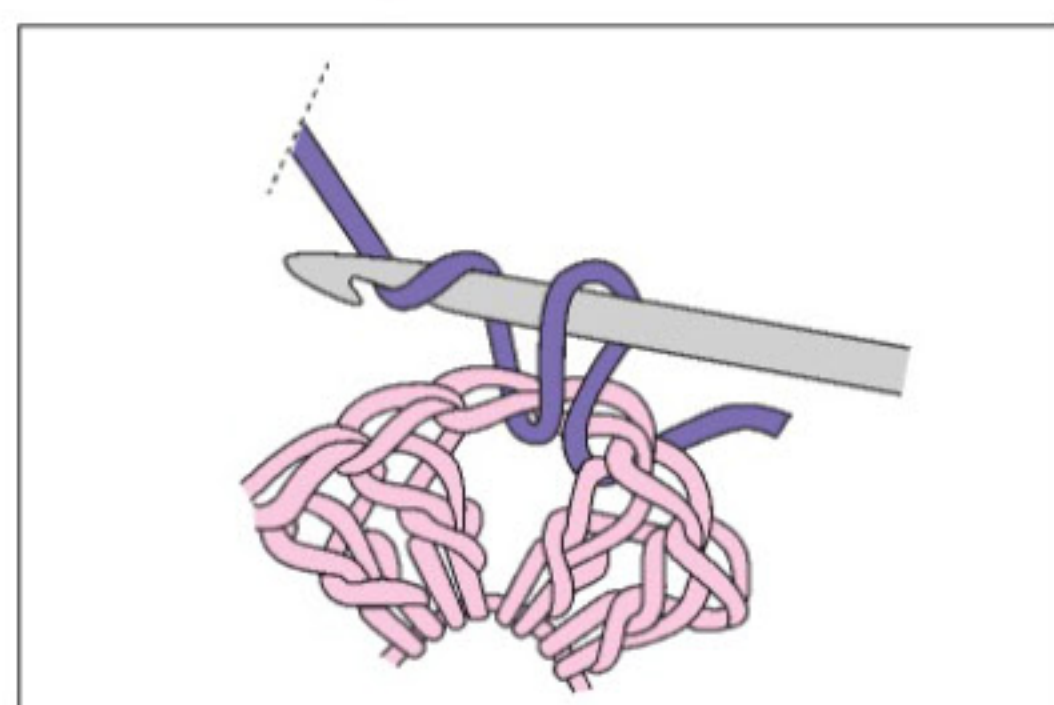

A more invisible, but less substantial, fastening off can be made with the use of a knitter's sewing needle. Break the yarn and pull it through the last stitch or chain, thread it on the needle then take it under the top two strands of the first stitch or chain.

Take the yarn back into the stitch it came from. The yarn end will need darning in to be secure.

Joining a new colour

In most granny squares a new colour is joined in a chain space after fastening off the previous colour. Rather than simply knotting the new colour to the chain, start by holding the yarn behind the work, insert the hook in the chain space and pull a loop through, yarn round hook above the chain and pull it through the loop to make a stitch around the chain. This will leave a loose end to darn in later but it will make the base of the three chain that form the first stitch match more closely the rest of the stitches.

This month, learn how to crochet in style, keep your baby's tootsies warm, revisit nursery rhymes from your childhood and embrace your inner English rose

Knitted Nursery Rhymes: Recreate the traditional tales with knitted toys

By Sarah Keen (GMC Publications, £14.99)

The first part of this title is much like a child's favourite picture book. The words of 15 nursery rhymes appear in full – everything from Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary to Humpty Dumpty is included. And alongside each are colourful, humorous photos of the rhymes' characters and scenes, as imagined and knitted by Sarah Keen. The book's second part shows how you can knit your own Jack or Jill or Old Mother Hubbard, or even your own barrel of five little monkeys. It's a great way to introduce your children or grandchildren to the rhymes and ditties that have been sung through the generations.

The New Crochet: A beginner's guide, with 38 modern projects

By Marion Madel (Potter Craft, £12.99)

The 38 modern and stylish projects featured in French designer Marion Madel's book would be a welcome addition to any wardrobe.

From kimono cardigans to sand stitch slippers, these are glamorous and on-trend designs. But as well as trendy garments, this book is also about opening up the world of crochet to those who've never picked up a hook before, or are in need of a refresher course. It's divided into a series of 25 lessons, each one focusing on a single skill or technique. Simple instructions make them manageable for those who are new to crochet.

Baby Booties and Socks: 50 knits for tiny toes

By Frederique Alexandre (Search Press, £12.99)

It's the littlest toes that need to be kept warmest. And in Frederique Alexandre's book, mums, grans, aunts and friends will find 50 bright, colourful and good-fun ways to keep a new arrival's tootsies toasty. Full of gorgeous ideas to keep your little one warm and on-trend, there's a section dedicated to special-occasion booties, and ideas for the cutest baby ballet pumps, espadrilles and moccasins and even booties shaped like tiny fluffy mice. The patterns use both knitting and crochet, are clearly laid-out, easy-to-follow and come in multiple sizes from birth to two years.

Knits From An English Rose: 25 modern-vintage accessories

By Louisa Harding (Sixth&Spring, £17.99)

Louisa Harding's patterns are creative and show how colour and texture can be used to great effect in knitwear. In the intro to this book, she suggests we all have an 'inner girl' and that she is 'feminine, individual and creative'. The same might be said for the designs she's included in the book, each one soft and ladylike in rich purples and pinks. And while some of the patterns may challenge a beginner, the instructions are set out with precision and clarity. Harding shows us that being a 'girl' or an 'English Rose' isn't about age or the way you look, it's a state of mind.

Tina's Tips & Tricks

Get the little things right and your knitting will be beautiful

We want your knitting to be the best it can possibly be. So it's a good job we have Tina. A true knitting professional, Tina's been Technical Knitting Editor at Woman's Weekly for the last 14 years. And now she's here to help you! Every month, Tina will be answering the most common questions you've sent in and resolving some of the issues we all face as knitters. Together, we'll make your knitting beautiful!

Yarn shortage

Q For my latest project I found a lovely top to knit. The pattern recommended using a DK wool and acrylic blend, but I decided to knit it with a DK cotton instead. The tension was the same, so it seemed like an easy enough switch to make. But as I was knitting my top, I found I needed more yarn than the pattern had suggested. Why should this be?

A When substituting one yarn for another, it's important to remember that yarns are balled according to weight. As cotton is heavier than a wool-acrylic mix, there'll be fewer metres of it per ball. And that's what has happened in this case. Fewer metres per ball means less yarn to knit with, and the yarn's been used up more quickly by the pattern. There are many reasons why you might want to use a different yarn from the one specified. You might have found a pattern you like and the yarn for it isn't available any more. Maybe you want to make a garment more appropriate for a particular season, or perhaps you're hoping to use up a few balls you have spare. To help you work out how much of a substituted yarn you'll need for your project, we've put a guide on our website (womansweekly.co.uk/knitting). Sometimes, getting your knitting right comes down to a bit of number crunching!

More crocheted clothes!

Q There are so many crocheted garments in the shops these days. But so far, not so many in Woman's Weekly – they tend to be crocheted toys, or ornaments or home makes. I'd love to see some patterns included for crocheted clothes.

A You're right, crochet is back! And because the demand for crocheted garments is growing, I've no doubt that we'll be bringing you some stylish patterns before long. But that said, we've got a delicate balance to strike between crocheted garments and knitted ones. Both crafts have a place here, and I hope the way they are represented reflects the level of interest in them.

In the meantime, have you checked out the crochet patterns available from our online shop? Visit womansweeklyshop.co.uk/knitting.

All sewn up

Q I've been knitting a sweater with set-in sleeves. It was going well until I got to the sewing-up bit. The sleeve heads wouldn't fit into the armholes because they didn't have the same number of rows!

A There are several ways to shape armholes and the sleeve heads are shaped accordingly. If your sweater has raglan shaping, you'd have found the same amount of rows on the sleeve head and the armhole. And that makes them easy to sew up. Set-in sleeves are a different matter. The sleeve head will always have fewer rows than the armhole. Had the sleeve head and the armhole the same number of rows, you'd find the sweater looked wrong and your movement would be restricted. In knitted garments this isn't a huge problem because knitting fabric has so much give. But you'd run into problems if you were using other textiles. Basically, you need extra width at the top of the sleeve and this is created by its curvy shape and calculated according to the depth of the armhole and the width of the sleeve. Even a slight deviation from the instructions or the slightest difference in tension can throw everything off kilter.

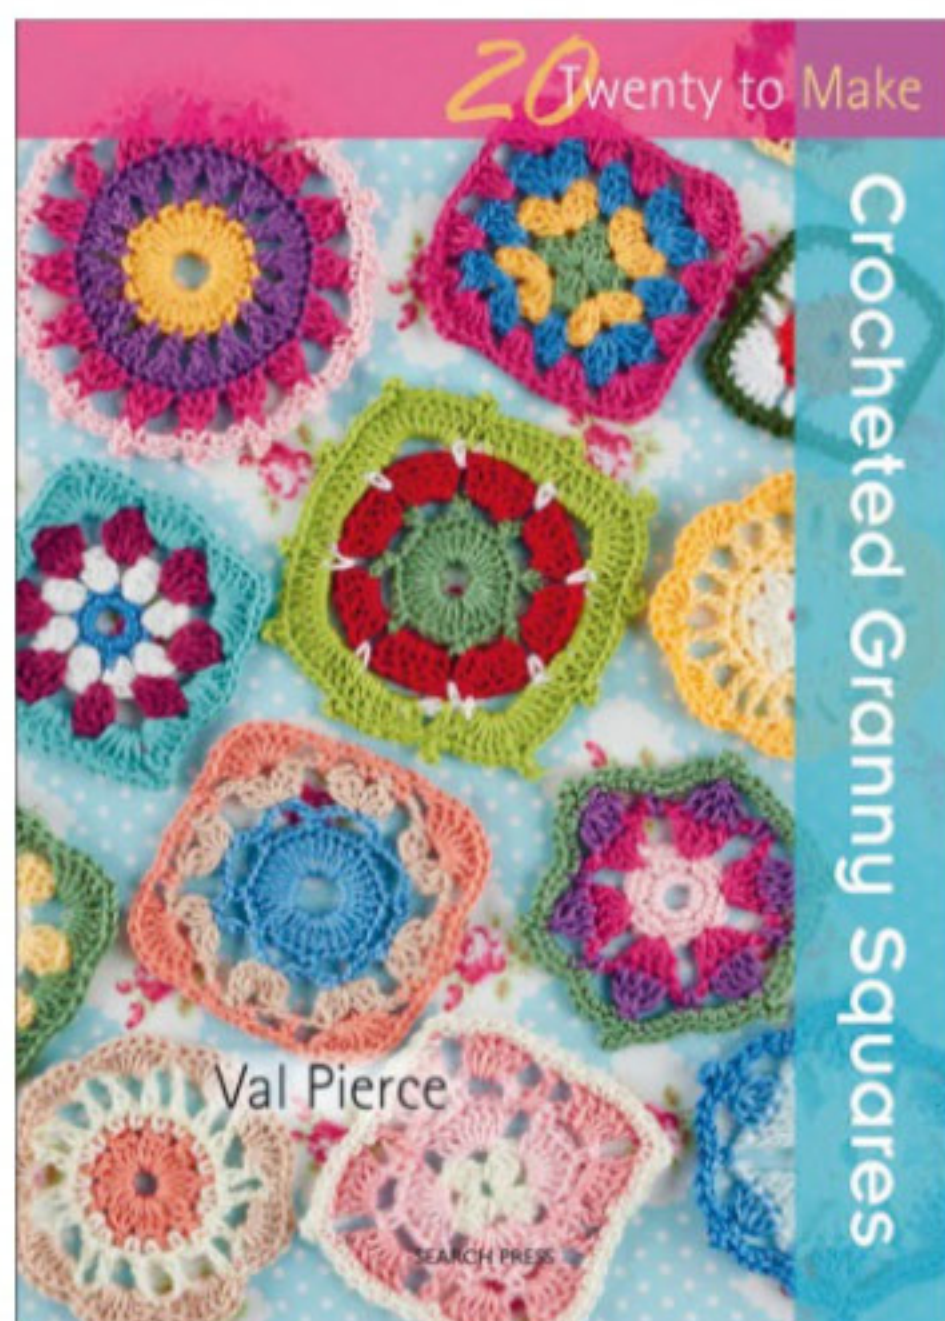

But what if you can't sew the sleeve head to the armhole row for row? Turn the garment inside out. Insert the sleeve head into the armhole from inside. Place the centre of the top part of the sleeve against the shoulder seam. Match the cast-off stitches at the base of the sleeve top to the cast-off stitches of the armhole and fit the remainder into the armhole, then pin them into position. With back or front facing, work in back stitch around the edge of both layers, working one stitch away from the straight part of armhole edge where possible. From time to time, check the right side to ensure the seam is being maintained properly and it's neat and even.

The best part about finishing a project is getting to show it off. So why not share yours with us?

That fruity feeling

It started when I knitted a cactus for a relative staying on a hospital ward that wouldn't allow flowers. Then my sister bought me a book of patterns for knitted flowers, and knitted fruit and veg. Since then, I've made beetroot, mushrooms, bananas, satsumas, chillies... Last autumn, I gave them to my church to add to their Harvest Festival display. Somehow, they ended up in a bag of knits donated to a charity in Moldova. I hope they've been a hit there, too!

Chequered children

When I had my first daughter, Iris, back in 2012, I knitted a blanket to keep her snug in her cot. So when my second, Connie, came along last September, I had to knit one for her, too. This time I went for a striking chequerboard design. I still have some of the things my mum knitted for me many years ago. Now I have daughters of my own, I hope they'll keep their blankets forever. A memento of their mum who loves them very much.

Little teddies for little souls

If you're as keen a knitter as I am, you'll know all about the odds and ends of yarn you end up with when you've finished working on a project. I wanted to do something with them, so I decided to knit little teddies to send to children living in hospitals and orphanages in war-torn countries. Because of the different yarns I use, each teddy is an individual, just like the little person he's sent to cheer up. I hope my teddies can show those children the world's not always a bad place.

Back to it!

When I saw the adorable pattern for a Hello Kitty toy in Woman's Weekly, I made a big decision to pick up my needles and get knitting again! It had been ages since I'd last knitted anything, but I got back into it straight away. Once I'd finished Kitty, I started work on this Nativity scene from a pattern by designer Jane Greenhowe. It turned out really well and I'm so pleased with it. Yes, it might be March right now, but every day's Christmas Day once you've got your knitting mojo back. And I've Kitty to thank for that!
