

Amigurumi Frankenstein Pattern

A pattern by Amy Gaines

Materials:

Worsted weight yarn: Light green, dark green, brown, and black

4.00 mm hook

Polyfill stuffing

Embroidery thread

Tapestry needle

Polyfill beads (optional)

4-6 mm doll eyes

scrap of white felt-for eyes

Abbreviations:

ch = Chain

sc = Single Crochet

2sctog = single crochet 2 stitches together (decrease)

2scinc = single crochet twice in the same single crochet stitch (increase)

Finished size: 7.5 inches tall and 6 inches wide

About this pattern: This pattern is worked in a spiral, so please mark the last stitch of each round to keep place, with a stitch marker or safety pin. When starting a piece, the pattern calls for a “ring” use what ever ring you would like: a slip knot, double ring, an adjustable loop, etc... The tail from the ring should be tightened and sewn into the piece and cut.

Rnd17: 2sctog, 7 sc, 2sctog, 2sctog, 7 sc, 2sctog (18) End- slip stitch to next sc, pull thru and end. Before you stuff the head, make sure to put on the eyes thru white felt circles and fasten on the face, and 2 more doll eyes on the sides of the head as the "bolts," securing the washer on the first ring of the doll eye post, so that they will stick out. Embroider the mouth and around the eyes as in the photo, along with the "stitches" on the forehead with white thread.

Body: Start with brown yarn

Rnd 1: make a ring, sc 6 times in ring (6) (remember to mark the last stitch at the end of each round.)
