

Mr Frog

Loose guidelines for how I made Mr. Frog...

Loose guidelines for how I made Mr. Froggy...

Hook 3.0mm/D

Green sport weight/double knitting yarn

Red (or black or any!) yarn for mouth

White felt (depending on the quality of your felt you might have to double up so it will look whiter)

Two black buttons – small

4 wooden beads – your choice

Poly-fill

Head:

Foundation: Ch 2. In second chain from hook make 6 sc.

Row 1: 2sc in each sc (12)

Row 2: Sc in first sc, 2sc in next sc* repeat until 18

Row 3: Sc in first sc, sc in second sc, 2sc in third sc* repeat until 24

Row 4: Sc in first sc, sc in second sc, sc in third sc, 2sc in fourth sc* repeat until 30

Row 5-9: work even

Row 10: Sc in first sc, sc in second sc, sc in third sc, sc 2 tog * repeat until 24

Row 11: sc in first sc, sc in second sc, sc 2 tog * repeat until 18

Row 12: sc in first sc, sc 2 tog * repeat until 12

Fasten off. Weave in end. Stuff. Sew on mouth with red yarn.

Eyes:

Foundation: Ch 2. In second chain from hook make 6 sc.

Row 1: sc 2 in each sc (12)

Row 2-4: work even
Fasten off. Stuff. Attach to head.

Body:
Foundation: Ch 2. In second chain from hook make 6sc.

Row 1: sc 2 in each sc (12)
Row 2: Sc in first sc, 2sc in next sc* repeat until 18
Row 3-9: work even
Row 10: sc in first sc, sc 2 tog* repeat until 12
Row 11-12: work even

Fasten off. Leave long end for attaching body to head. Stuff.

Arms/Legs:
String on beads or whatever you want to use for hands/feet. I used two different sizes of wooden beads. Small rounds for the hands and larger square for the feet.

Chain to the length that you want! I think I did 11 for the arms and 13 for the legs.

Turn and sc in each ch (10 for arms 12 for legs) push a bead up flush to your work

Turn slip stitch in each sc. Fasten off.

I left a long end and weaved it in all the way up the arm and used it to attach it to the body. I found this made a nice “backbone” for the arm and helped give it a pleasing curve. But you’ll really have to experiment and find what you like.

Details:

White felt cut out in rounds (my felt was cheap. I had to make two layers for each eyeball). I sewed black plastic buttons to it and then the whole thing got sewn onto the eye orb. A little dab of glue wouldn’t hurt to help hold it into place either. Or instead of buttons why not glue on those googly eyes? I dunno...

personal note: I’ve been stuffing all my amigurumi with just poly-fill no pellets. But of course, that’s up to you. Putting some pellets in the the bottom two-thirds of the Frog’s body might give it a more stable weight for sitting. Although, I haven’t had much problems with just the poly-fill.

Have fun!

pps~ I worked this pattern in continuous rounds - no slip stitching between rows, however if that's what makes you comfortable you certainly can do it that way! The continuous rounds give you a more spiral effect. In such a small project and with no color changes, though, this doesn't effect the results much. (^_^)v